NOTICE.—The steamers of this line take Lieutenant Maury's lane routes at all seasons of the year.

These steamers are built especially to meet the requirements of the Admiralty, and are fitted with water-tight compartments.

They are among the strongest, largest, and fastest on the Atlantic, reducing the passage to a minimum, giving thereby especial comfort to passengers.

The saloons are large, luxuriously furnished, especially well lighted and ventilated, and take up the whole width of the ship amidships.

The principal staterooms are amidships, forward of the engines, where least noise and motion is felt; and all the cabins are particularly light and airy, and replete with every comfort, having all latest improvements, double berths, electric bells, etc.

The cuisine has always been a specialty of this line.

Ladies' cabins and bathrooms, gentlemen's smoking and bath rooms, barbers' shop, pianos, libraries, etc., provided.

The Original Elixir

OF

CALISAYA BARK,

Introduced to the Medical Profession by J. MILHAU in 1830.

Fifty years' reputation as the most palatable and reliable tonic, appetizer, and anti-malarial.

This preparation is particularly recommended to convalescents, to persons of weak habit, to those debilitated by overwork, or summer heat, or whose digestion is impaired; and to such as reside in low, damp situations, where the nervous system is, in general, more or less relaxed. The addition of certain ingredients has so completely modified the taste of the Bark as to render this efficacious remedy a most palatable Cordial, thus peculiarly adapting it to conquer that repugnance which most persons experience after having for some time used bitter potions. As a preventive of the Ague, combining the greatest efficacy with a highly agreeable flavor, it has superseded the use of all other remedies in such parts of the country as it is known.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS AND INFERIOR PRODUCTIONS EVOKED BY FIFTY YEARS OF SUCCESS.

Ask for Milhau's Elixir of Calisaya, and take no other.

Price $1 per Bottle; 6 Bottles for $5.

Chronological Cycles.

Dominical Letters	D C	Julian Period	6593
Solar Cycle	13	Year of the World (Septuagint)	7388–9
Lunar Cycle or Golden Number	19	Dionysian Period	209
Epact (Moon's age)	18	Jewish Lunar Cycle	16

The year 1880 is Leap Year, and until July 4 is the One Hundred and Fourth Year of the Independence of the United States.

The calends were the first day of each month among the Romans; hence a calendar was a list of the months, beginning with their calends.

The real Solar Year contains 365 days, 5 hours, 48 minutes, 48 seconds; the Common or Civil Year, only 365 days. But for the neglect of these fractions Julius Cæsar ordered an additional day to be given to every fourth year, introducing it after February 24, called in Latin sextilis; hence these years are called Bissextile. In English they are called Leap Years. The Julian calendar did not completely rectify the error, and Pope Gregory XIII., in 1582, reformed the Calendar. The days from October 5 to 14 in that year were suppressed, and, to prevent errors, the century years 1700, 1800 were not to be regarded as Leap Years. This reform, called the Gregorian Calendar, most Protestant countries refused, for nearly two hundred years, to accept at the hands of the Pope, and retained the erroneous calendar. In New York, where the Dutch used the correct calendar, the English, on conquering the province, restored an erroneous form and retained it for a hundred years. Russia has just accepted it.

The Epact expresses the moon's age on the first day of the year, and is used to determine Easter, which depends on the moon, being always the first Sunday after the first full moon after the vernal equinox (March 21).

The Golden Number is the number of years that have elapsed since a new moon fell on January 1. It is obtained by adding one to the date, and dividing by nineteen, the number of years in a cycle.

From 11 times the Golden Number subtract 10, and divide by 30, subtract 1, and the remainder is the Epact.

The Epact subtracted from 24 gives the number of days from March 21 to the next ecclesiastical full moon, and the following Sunday, shown by the Dominical Letter, is Easter Sunday.

By the reformation of the calendar by Pope Gregory XIII., the year began on the first day of January, and, consequently, whenever and wherever the NEW STYLE of reckoning time was adopted, then and there the year commenced on this day.

Previous to the use of the Gregorian Calendar the years had different days of beginning at various times in the same and different countries, and occasionally at the same time in the same country. In most countries it began on one of the following days: Christmas Day, the 25th of December; Circumcision Day, the 1st of January; Lady Day, the 25th of March; or Easter Day, the day of the Resurrection of our Lord.

To Ascertain the Length of the Day and Night.

At any time of the year add twelve hours to the time of the sun's setting, and from the sum subtract the time of rising, for the length of the day. Subtract the time of setting from twelve hours, and to the remainder add the time of rising next morning, for the length of the night. These rules are equally true for apparent time.

There will be six eclipses this year—four of the Sun and two of the Moon:

2. A total eclipse of the Moon, June 22. Invisible in the United States.
3. An annular eclipse of the Sun, July 7. Invisible in North America.

Holidays of Obligation in the United States.

All the Sundays of the year—The Circumcision of our Lord—The Epiphany—The Annunciation of the B. V. Mary—the Ascension of our Lord—Corpus Christi—The Assumption of the B. V. Mary—All Saints—Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary—Nativity of our Lord, or Christmas.

N. B.—Feasts which fall on Sunday are not included in this enumeration.

(In some Western dioceses the Circumcision, Epiphany, Annunciation, and Corpus Christi are not holidays of obligation.)

Fasting Days.

Fridays in Advent; every day in Lent, Sundays excepted; the Ember Days (see below); the vigil of Whitsunday or Pentecost, of the Assumption, of All Saints, and of Christmas.

N. B.—1. When a feast falls on Monday, the vigil is kept on the Saturday preceding. To fast consists in abstaining from flesh-meat and eating but one full meal in the day, not before 12 o'clock M. Besides this, a collation, or about the one fourth of a meal, is allowed in the evening. All who have completed their twenty-first year are obliged to observe the fasts of the Church, unless exempted for some legitimate cause.

2. In some dioceses, the Friday of the Ember-Days is the only Friday in Advent on which there is an obligation to fast.

3. It has been directed by the Sacred Congregation de Propaganda Fide, that the feast of SS. Peter and Paul be solemnly celebrated in the United States on the Sunday immediately after the 29th of June, and it is the wish of the Sacred Congregation that the Bishops exhort the faithful under their charge to keep fast on the Saturday preceding that solemn celebration.

Days of Abstinence.

All Fridays. When Christmas falls on a Friday, abstinence is not of precept. Abstinence on Saturday has been dispensed with for the faithful of the United States, except when a fast falls on that day. Soldiers and sailors in the service of the United States, even in barracks, garrisons, etc., are dispensed by the indult of Pope Pius IX. from the rule of abstinence, except on six days in each year, namely, Ash Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday in Holy Week, the Vigil of the Assumption, and Christmas Eve.

Ember-Days.

The Ember-Days are the Wednesdays, Fridays, and Saturdays which occur, 1st, in winter, immediately after the third Sunday of Advent; 2d, in the spring, immediately after the first Sunday in Lent; 3d, in the summer, during Whitsun-Week; 4th, in the autumn, immediately after the 14th of September. They are days of fasting, and of great antiquity in the Church. The object of their observance is to consecrate to God the four seasons of the year, by penance; to obtain his blessing on the fruits of the earth, and to beg of him worthy ministers of the Church. The ordination of clergymen generally takes place, in Catholic countries, on Ember-Saturday.

INDULGENCES GRANTED TO THE FAITHFUL OF THE UNITED STATES.

On the 13th of August, 1792, his Holiness granted to all and each of the faithful of the Catholic communion, living in the ENTIRE* diocese of Baltimore, a plenary Indulgence, to be gained by all who, having made a good confession and holy communion on the days mentioned below, shall visit the parish church or any other; or, if there be no church or chapel, shall devoutly recite five times Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory be to the Father, and fervently pray for the propagation of the Catholic faith and the exaltation of the Church.

These plenary Indulgences may be gained on the following days, F.D.

* The Diocese of Baltimore then included all the States east of the Mississippi, except Florida.

From the vigil of Christmas until the day of Epiphany, inclusively.
From the first Sunday of Lent to the second, inclusively.
From Passion Sunday to Maundy-Thursday, inclusively.
From the Vespers of Holy Saturday to Low Sunday, inclusively.
From the first Vespers of Whit-Sunday until the last day of the Octave of Corpus Christi, inclusively.

On the feasts of the Purification, Annunciation, Assumption, Nativity, and Conception of the B. V. Mary, and during the whole Octaves of these feasts.

On the feast of the Apostles SS. Peter and Paul, and during the whole Octave of the same feast.

On the feast of St. Michael the Archangel, and during the whole Octave of the same feast.

On the feast of All Saints, and during the whole octave of the same.

☞ By a decree of the Congregation of Indulgences, published January 28, 1842, in order that the faithful may gain the indulgences published by the Holy See, it is necessary that they should be recognized by the Bishops, and promulgated by them in their respective dioceses.

DIRECTIONS FOR UNDERSTANDING THE ORDO.

The prayers and portions of the Holy Scripture of which the Mass is composed are, in part, unalterably the same, and partly different every day. Those that are fixed and invariable are contained in what is called the Ordinary of the Mass, to be found at the beginning of the Missal. The parts that are changeable or proper—the Introits, Collects, Gradual, Tracts, Epistles, Gospel, Offertories, Secrets, Communions, and Post-communions—form the subsequent contents of the book. As the Prefaces are not so frequently subject to change, they follow each other in regular succession in the ordinary of the Mass.

If a double should fall on a Sunday, then the Mass of the double is said instead of that of the Sunday, unless it be a privileged Sunday, such as the first Sunday of Advent or Lent, Passion, Palm, Easter, Pentecost, and Trinity Sundays, which are never superseded; or a Sunday of the second class, which cannot be superseded except by doubles of the first class, as the 2d, 3d, and 4th of Advent, Septuagesima, Sexagesima, and Quinquagesima; as also the 2d, 3d, and 4th of Lent. It must, however, be remarked, that the Gospels for Sundays, thus superseded by doubles, are never omitted, but are recited at the end of the Mass, instead of St. John's Gospel; and also that a commemoration of the Sunday by its proper collect, secret, and post-communion, is always made immediately after the collect, etc., of the festival.

But as it sometimes happens that a double is transferred to some future vacant day, on account of some festival of higher rank intervening, then the difficulty of finding out the day on which such transferred festival is celebrated, as well as all other difficulties regarding the service, may be easily removed by consulting the following Ordo, as a guide to the morning as well as to the evening service of the Church.

1. The Office of every day is either Double, Semidouble, Simple, or of the Feria.

Of doubles (so-called, because the anthems are repeated entire, both before and after the Psalms at vespers), some are of the first class, marked thus in the calendar, doub. 1st cl.; others of the second class, and are marked thus, doub. 2d cl.; others are greater doubles, marked gr. doub., others common doubles, marked doub.

2. Doubles are always kept on the day marked in the calendar, unless they fall on some Sunday of the first or second class, some privileged feria, or within certain octaves which take place of the festivals; in which case they are transferred to the first day not marked either as a double or a semi-double.

Doub. 1st cl. denotes a great solemnity; doub. 2 cl. a lesser solemnity; greater doub. marks the feast to be of a higher rite than a common double; doub. is the common and most general rank of saints; semid. is less than a double; simpl. shows the feast to be one of the lowest rite; fer. or feria day is a week-day having no feast; great fer. are week-days in Lent, Advent, etc.; Vig. or Vigil is the eve of a great solemnity.

The Sundays of the 1st class, which take place of all doubles, are:

The first Sunday of Advent, the first Sunday of Lent, Passion Sunday, Palm Sunday, Easter Sunday, Low Sunday, Whit Sunday, Trinity Sunday.

The Sundays of the second class, which take place, also, of all doubles, except those of the first class, and of which, in that case, a commemoration is made at mass and in both vespers, are, the second, third, and fourth of Advent; Septuagesima, Sexagesima, and Quinquagesima, the second, third, and fourth of Lent.

The Ferias, which enjoy the same privileges as Sundays of the first class, are, Ash Wednesday, All Holy Week, Whitsun Eve, the whole octaves of Easter and Whitsuntide.

In like manner, within the octave of the Epiphany, no feast less than a first class can be kept.

On all other Sundays of the year, if a double occur, it is kept with a commemoration of the Sunday at mass, and at vespers also, except the following day be a feast of the first class.

3. A semidouble (so-called because only a part of the Anthem is said before each psalm at vespers) is marked in the calendar thus, semid., and occurring on any Sunday whatsoever, is put off to the first vacant day; that is, the first day on which there is neither double nor semidouble marked in the calendar. The same is to be observed of all semidoubles occurring within the octave of Corpus Christi.

4. Simples have no mark in the calendar, and are never transferred; but if they fall on Sunday, or on any other day when the office cannot be said of them, a commemoration is made of the first vespers, and at mass; unless it be a feast of the first class (on which no notice is taken of simples), or of the second class, in which case a commemoration of them is made in the Lauds, and at a low private mass only.

5. The following ferias, called greater ferias, take place of all simples, of which there is only a commemoration made at mass, viz., the ferias of Advent and of Lent, the Ember Days, and Tuesday in Rogation Week. A commemoration is also made of the ferias of Advent and of Lent at vespers and at mass, whatever feast happens; but of the Ember Days and Tuesday in Rogation Week, only at mass.

6. If a vigil happen within the octave, the mass is of the vigil, with a commemoration of the octave, unless there be a double or a semidouble feast that day, in which case the mass is of the feast, with a commemoration of the octave, and of the vigil. But if a vigil occur on a feast of the first class, there is no commemoration made of it.

If a festival that has a vigil fall on a Monday, the mass of the vigil is said on the foregoing Saturday, except the vigil of Christmas and of the Epiphany

If a vigil happen in Advent, the mass is of the vigil, with a commemoration of the feria, except the vigil of Christmas.

If a vigil happen in Lent, on an Ember Day, the mass is of the feria with a commemoration of the vigil.

In the paschal time there is no office of vigil, except that of Ascension Eve, which, however, is no fast.

7. When a double of the first or second class, which is a holyday of obligation, falling on any day, is to be transferred, the obligation of the holy day is seldom transferred, but the faithful are generally obliged to hear mass on the day marked in the calendar.

8. When several festivals have been translated from their proper days, they are afterward to be kept in this order: first, those that are doubles, and then those that are semidoubles: and among the doubles or semibles, those whose proper days first occurred, are to be kept first; there are, however, some exceptions to this rule.

9. Coll. or Collect, signifies the oration or prayer. Upon all doubles one collect, secret, or post-communion, only is said; except they fall on a Sunday, or within some octave, or upon some vigil, or in the time of Lent or Advent, or except it occurs with some simple; in all which cases two collects, etc., are said; one of the double, the other of the Sunday, octave, etc.

10. Upon Sundays and all semidoubles, are said three collects, secrets, and post-communions; excepting Sundays, which occur within an octave, on which are said two collects, etc.; one of the Sunday, the other of the octave.

11. The second and third collects, secrets, and post-communions to be said on Sundays and semidoubles in the different seasons of the year, are specified in their proper places.

12. Upon semidoubles occurring within octaves, or in vigils, etc., the second collect, secret, and post-communion are a commemoration of the octave or vigil; and the third of the B. V. M.; but within the octaves of the Blessed Virgin, the third is of the Holy Ghost.

13. On semidoubles in Advent, the second collect, secret, and post-communion, are the collect, etc., of the foregoing Sunday; the third of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

14. Upon simples and ferias, three collects, etc., are said; but if the priest please, he may say five or seven, to be taken out of the divers prayers in the common.

15. Upon week-days, which have no proper office, nor any saint's day occurring thereon, the mass is of the foregoing Sunday.

16. Upon days within octaves, when no proper mass is assigned, the mass is said as on the feast, with three collects, etc.—N.B. The days within octaves are kept as semidoubles only.

17. The collect of the B.V.M. within octaves on vigils and on semidoubles within paschal time, Grant, O Lord, etc., is found in the votive mass of the Blessed Virgin Mary; from Advent to Christmas the collect of B.V.M. is, O God, who wast pleased, read in the mass of the first Sunday of Advent; from Christmas to Candlemas the collect of the Blessed Virgin, O God, who by the fruitful, as in the mass of the Circumcision.

18. The collect of gen. suffr., or general suffrage, is the prayer of the suffrages of the saints, which begins thus, Preserve us, O Lord, found in the ordinary of the mass.

19. The collects for the Church and Pope are said in the mass of the first Sunday of Advent. The collect of the Pope is said on the anniversary days of his creation and coronation; the creation here signifies his election to the sovereign Pontificate.

20. The words ad lib. signify that one is at liberty to recite any of the occasional collects or prayers found toward the end of a missal.

21. The gospels assigned on Sundays are never omitted. Wherefore if a double be kept on a Sunday, at the end of mass is read the gospel of the Sunday, instead of that of St. John; and the same is observed when a double or semidouble is kept upon one day in Lent, or on a vigil or ember-day.

22. Where a special prayer is ordered to be said in the mass by the Bishop, it cannot be said in the place of the third prayer, which is noted ad lib. It must be said as the fourth. This prayer is omitted in all masses of the first class, and in high masses of the second class, unless it be ordered pro causa gravi, when it is said under the one conclusion. It may be said in private masses of the second class.

DIRECTIONS FOR USING THE VESPER OR OFFICE-BOOK.

It appears necessary to explain the order as well as the manner in which that part of the public Liturgy of the Catholic Church called Vespers is recited or sung.

Our Father and Hail Mary being said in silence, the priest, making the sign of the Cross, intones aloud the Versicle, Deus in adjutorium meum intende; to which the choir add the responsory, Domine ad adjuvandum me festina, with the Gloria Patri; and when five psalms with as many anthems have been sung, the priest sings the little chapter.

Then are sung the Hymn, with its Versicle and Responsory, and the Magnificat, with its Anthem, followed with such Prayer and Commemorations as are suitable to the day; which, if it be neither a Double nor within the Octave of a Festival, are the common Commemorations or Suffrages, and are to be found after the vespers for Saturday.

Every double has first and second vespers: the first are said on the eve of the Festival, and the second on the Festival itself. Hence it often happens that the vespers are not of the Sunday, but of some double that falls on the ensuing day.

To find out the particular vespers for every Sunday and holyday throughout the year, consult the Directory at the day of the month on which such Sunday or Festival falls.

EXPLANATION OF THE VESTMENTS AND CEREMONIES USED IN THE HOLY SACRIFICE OF THE MASS.

All the external rites used in the celebration of the Holy Mysteries are intended for the instruction of the faithful. The chief design of these rites is to commemorate and to represent the passion and death of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. This is plainly to be observed in the Altar and its ornaments, as also in the vestments which are worn by the Priest.

The Altar represents Mount Calvary, where the Redeemer of the world expired upon an ignominious cross. This very word Altar has relation to sacrifice, which must necessarily be offered to God in that church in which his true faith is professed: and hence this name of Altar is mentioned by St. Paul—"We have an altar," said he, "whereof they have no right to eat who serve the tabernacle."—Heb. xiii. 10. The Altar also represents the table on which our blessed Saviour, the night before he suffered, celebrated his last supper with his disciples.

The Candles are lighted during the Holy Mysteries, through a motive of honor and respect. They represent the light of faith, and the fervor of charity, which the Gospel inculcates. They are also expressive of spiritual life and joy. "Throughout all the churches of the East," says St. Jerome, "when the Gospel is to be read, though the sun shines, torches are used, not to chase away darkness, but for a sign of joy."

The Crucifix is placed in the middle of the Altar, to represent to our minds the passion and death of Jesus Christ, which are chiefly to be considered and piously meditated upon in this Holy Sacrifice.

The Amice, a linen cloth which the priest pulls over his head, and fastens round his neck, signifies the linen with which the Jews blindfolded our Saviour in mockery when they smote him and buffeted him, saying: "Prophesy unto us, O Christ! who is he that struck you?"—Matt. xxvi. 68.

The Alb represents the white garment which Herod put upon Christ after he had despised and mocked him.—Luke xxiii. 11.

The Maniple that the priest wears on his left arm, the Stole that he hangs down from his neck, and the Girdle, figure the cords and fetters with which the officers of the Jews bound Christ, and led him from one place to another.—John xviii. 12–24.

The Chasuble, or upper garment, represents the purple garment which the soldiers put upon Jesus Christ, and the heavy cross that he carried on his blessed shoulders to Mount Calvary.

As to the colors of the ornaments with which the priest celebrates the Holy Mysteries, the White is used on the Festivals of our Lord, of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and of all the saints who are not martyrs.

The Red is used on Pentecost, on the Invention and Exaltation of the Cross, and on the Feasts of the Apostles and Martyrs.

The Purple or Violet, which is the penitential color, is used on all the Sundays and Ferias of Advent, and during the whole of the penitential time, from Septuagesima Sunday till Easter; as also on all Vigils, Ember-Days, and Rogation-Days, when the Office is of them, and on the Feast of the Holy Innocents.

The Green is used on all Sundays and Ferias from Trinity-Sunday to Advent exclusively, and from the Octave of the Epiphany to Septuagesima Sunday, exclusively, when the Office is of the Sunday; but in Paschal time the White is used.

The Black is used on Good Friday, and in Masses of Requiem for the dead, which may be said on any day that is not a Sunday or a Double, except from Palm-Sunday to Low-Sunday, and during the Octaves of Christmas, of the Epiphany, of Pentecost, and of Corpus Christi.

1. On the Anniversary of the Consecration of a Bishop the solemn Votive Mass of Consecration should be celebrated in the Cathedral Church If the Anniversary fall on a Sunday of the 1st Class, within Holy Week, on Easter, Pentecost, Christmas, etc., the Anniversary Mass should (for that year) be omitted. Should it occur upon a Sunday in Lent, the prayer for the Bishop must be said in the "Mass of the time." Throughout the diocese, the commemoration of the same anniversary must be made by every priest with the prayer, "Deus omnium fidelium," in the Votive Mass of the anniversary of the Consecration of a Bishop. This commemoration, however, should be omitted when the Anniversary occurs on Festivals of the 1st Class, Holy Thursday, Holy Saturday, or on any of the Sundays which admit only one prayer at Mass. But on Sundays and feasts of the 2d Class the Commemoration is made with one ending.

2. The Mass for the Transfer of a Bishop must be celebrated in the Church over which he is last placed; and throughout the diocese the Commemoration must be on the anniversary of the Transfer.

ECCLESIASTICAL INSTITUTIONS.

New Melleray Abbey, situated about twelve miles from Dubuque, Rt. Rev. Ephrem McDonald, abbot; Very Rev. Bernard McCaffery, prior, with other priests of the monastery. The spiritual wants of the neighboring Catholics attended to by the Fathers of the monastery.

St. Malachy's Benedictine Priory, Creston, Union Co., Iowa. This institution was founded in 1873 by Very Rev. Augustine Burns, O.S.B., for English-speaking subjects. It is located in the southwestern part of the State, in the midst of a promising and rapidly-improving country. The Benedictine Fathers at present in Creston attend to the spiritual wants of the Catholics in the six neighboring counties. They have several young men preparing for the ministry in the novitiate and college at St. Vincent's Abbey, Pa., and St. Benedict's Abbey, Atchison, Kansas; and intend as soon as they have sufficient means to erect new monastery and college buildings of their own at Creston.

HOSPITALS.

Mercy Hospital, Dubuque, Iowa. The Sisters of Mercy—a branch of the order from Davenport—have this year (1879) established a house in Dubuque, Iowa. A magnificent building for their use is in course of construction in one of the most healthful and agreeable sites in the city. The institution comprises three departments—an infirmary for the sick and the aged, an orphanage for the education of destitute children, and a House of Providence where homeless and unemployed girls are provided with all the comforts of the boarding-house, apart from the evils incidental to a residence therein.

The Marine Hospital of the city is also in charge of the Sisters of Mercy.

Mercy Hospital, Davenport, Iowa, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy. This institution, founded in 1869, by Right Rev. Bishop Hennessy, who, with Rev. Father Pelamourgues, had secured the property some years before for hospital purposes, is now in a flourishing condition. Two new buildings have been erected, and there are now accommodations for 100 patients, besides private wards and rooms comfortably and neatly fitted up. It is attended by the best physicians of Davenport and Rock Island. The locality of the hospital is unsurpassed for the beauty of its scenery and the salubrity of its air. It is surrounded by 30 acres of land, 20 of which are the gift of a truly Catholic and charitable lady, Mrs. Rose Mitchel, one of the oldest settlers of Davenport.

Hospital for Idiots, Imbeciles, etc., Davenport, Iowa, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy. In this institution idiots, imbeciles, and persons afflicted with a mild form of insanity are cared for. Number of inmates, 50.

INDUCEMENTS TO SETTLE IN MISSISSIPPI.

The following are some of the advantages which the State of Mississippi offers to settlers:

Of course there are great varieties of climate, soil, productions, etc., since the State has a range of two hundred and eighty miles north and south—from the boundary of Tennessee to the Gulf of Mexico. Consequently the following remarks are not all applicable to all parts. It is advisable that persons should either visit the country, or in other ways make themselves acquainted, before actually moving there.

The mild climate makes the country almost entirely free from consumption, and lung diseases in general are much more rare and much less dangerous than in the North.

Although the summer is long, yet the heat does not become as intense as in New York and Chicago. At Natchez the thermometer seldom rises above 94° Fahrenheit. The summer nights also are longer and cooler than in the North. Sunstroke is almost unknown there.

In winter the freezing is not severe nor long-continued, seldom lasting more than three days in succession; consequently the ground is not much penetrated by the frost, and a few days of clear weather dry the surface enough to allow of ploughing and other field work even in January and February.

Vegetables and fruits ripen from six to eight weeks earlier than they do north of the Ohio River; and good railroads, besides the Mississippi River, give quick and cheap transportation to all the Northern markets east and west.

The shortness and mildness of the winter are such that, in some parts, an industrious man, on a small place, may be able to obtain three or even four crops out of the same ground in one year. Irish potatoes may be gathered early enough to plant sweet potatoes after them; and these may be followed by beans, and afterwards by turnips for the winter.

Figs grow easily and abundantly, and ripen in all parts of the State; and in the extreme South, on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico, are oranges and bananas, within three hours' run of New Orleans by railroads.

In the northeastern parts of the State are fertile prairie lands, excellent for grains and fruits.

In some places are beds of marl, which offer an abundance of natural manure easily obtained.

In the south are large tracts of pine timber, with railroads running through them.

In some of the northerly parts is found coal, offering means for steam manufacturing.

Planters are offering their lands in small lots at low prices and on long payments, to encourage bona fide settlers of industrious habits.

The disposition of the people is favorable to the Church. They encourage its increase, even as a matter of policy to induce settlers to come among them. As for higher motives, they appreciate the doctrines and the institutions of our holy religion much better than they formerly did. In fact—partly owing to the good spirit, and partly to the already increasing number of Catholics—small churches have been opened in twenty-four new places since the end of the war, whereas there had been only fifteen erected in twenty-one years before the war. Several others are now building. Catholic schools are opened wherever the Catholic population can support them.

Chills and fever are not much prevalent in Mississippi, unless in the swampy parts of the country, and these are not much inhabited. The chief extent of this State is dry and healthy. The Yazoo district is one of the most fertile tracts of country in the world, and where it is drained and cultivated it is healthy and pleasant.

Persons desiring more particular information concerning the State of Mississippi, with a view to settling in it, can address their enquiries to Governor Humphreys, Vicksburg, Mississippi; or to Col. J M. Wesson, Jackson, Mississippi.

Professor Hilgard, formerly State Geologist, and Professor George Little, now holding that office, are each of them familiar with the soil and productions of the different parts of Mississippi, and either of them will take pleasure in giving all the satisfaction in his power. Professor Little may be addressed at the State University, Oxford, Mississippi; Professor Hilgard at the Michigan University, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

DIOCESE OF ST. AUGUSTINE, FLORIDA.

ESTABLISHED IN MARCH, 1870.

Comprises East, Middle, and South Florida.

The State of Florida, excepting that part which lies west of the Appalachicola River, was erected into a Vicariate-Apostolic by a bull of His Holiness in the year 1857, and in 1870 into the Diocese of St. Augustine.

Bishop—Right Rev. JOHN MOORE, D.D., consecrated May 13, 1877.

Late Bishop—Right Rev. AUGUSTIN VEROT, D.D., consecrated April 25, 1858, Vicar-Apostolic of Florida, translated to the See of Savannah in July, 1861, appointed Bishop of St. Augustine March, 1870, and died June 10, 1876.

Vicar-General—Very Rev. P. DUFAU.

CHURCHES AND CLERGY.

City of St. Augustine, Cathedral of St. Augustine, Rev. S. Langlade, rector; Rev. D. Bottolacio, assistant. The Church of St. Augustine is by far the oldest Catholic church in the land, though it has had many vicissitudes in consequence of frequent changes of flag. The first colonists came from Spain in 1565, long before the Plymouth Pilgrims, who came in 1620. The Church of St. Augustine was fully organized at that early period, and it is the unique privilege of that church to have a full set of church records of baptisms, marriages, etc., from the year 1594, in a perfect state of preservation. These records are now in the city of Havana, where they were carried in 1763, at the first change of flag which made Florida pass under English rule. The population was originally altogether Catholic, and it has continued to have a largely preponderating number of Catholics to the present day.

Chapel of Our Lady of Milk, formerly Nuestra Sra. de la Leche, half a mile north of St. Augustine. The site of that chapel has lately been discovered and a new building erected on the old foundations. The spot is hallowed from the fact that a missionary priest, the Franciscan friar Father Blas Rodriguez de Montes, two hundred and eighty years ago (in 1597) was put to death there by the Indians, from whom he asked and obtained permission to say Mass, which they attended in silence, and at the end of which they massacred him. There was on that spot, in the time of the old Spaniards, an oratory dedicated to Our Blessed Lady. The chapel perished during the political struggles of Florida; it was restored some years ago by Bishop Verot, but was blown down in a gale of wind.

City of Jacksonville, Church of the Immaculate Conception, Very Rev. Peter Dufau, V.G., rector; Rev. W. J. Kenney, assistant. The Church of Jacksonville, together with the parochial residence, which was a large and comfortable building, was destroyed by fire during the war. The new church was opened to divine worship on the 16th of November, 1873.

Key West (the most southerly point of Florida and of the United States), Church of St. Mary, Star of the Sea, Rev. Paul La Roque, pastor; Rev. A. Spandonari, assistant. The church here during the past few years has received such large additions and such embellishments that it is now virtually a new church, and is the largest and handsomest edifice of the kind in Key West. This enlargement of the church has been absolutely necessary, because there has been lately a large accession to the Catholic population of this place, a considerable number of Cubans having settled here.

Tallahassee, capital of Florida, Church of Mater Dolorosa, Rev. J. L. Hugon.

Fernandina, Amelia Island, Nassau Co., Rev. J. F. O'Boyle. The church of Fernandina is dedicated to God, under the patronage of St. Michael, in remembrance of Father Michael de Auñon, who suffered martyrdom in this place at the time of the Indian rebellion against the Catholic clergy in 1597.

Settlement of Mandarin, Duval Co., Church of St. Joseph, Rev. Henry Clavreul, rector.

Pilatka, on the St. John's River, Church of St. Monica, Rev. Felix Ghione, rector.

Tampa, Hillsborough Co., Church of St. Louis—in honor of Father Louis Cancer, O.S.D., who suffered martyrdom on the coast upwards of 300 years ago—Rev. P. J. Lynch, rector.

COLORED CONGREGATIONS.

The Catholic colored population of the diocese has received a due share of attention from the clergy, and the results have been very consoling in St. Augustine, where the men have organized a flourishing society under the name of St. Benedict's Colored Catholic Benevolent Association, the patron saint of the Society being St. Benedict the Moor, a colored man canonized in the present century by Pius VII. Under the guidance of the Sisters of St. Joseph there are also Catholic associations in a very prosperous state among the colored women and girls of St. Augustine; St. Monica's Society, for the care of the sick; St. Francis' Society, for married women; St. Cecilia's Society, for young colored women. The young colored boys here have lately been organized into a Society of St. Joseph. The colored Catholic population of St. Augustine is large enough to require for their accommodation an enlargement of the cathedral; this has been executed, and two new chapels of St. Monica and St. Benedict the Moor have been added to the time-honored building.

In Fernandina the colored people have a flourishing congregation. The Sisters of St. Joseph have also opened schools for the colored people not only in St. Augustine, but also in Mandarin, Jacksonville, in Fernandina, and in Pilatka. In other places the church has not made any gain among the colored population. The very limited number of the clergy, and their yet more limited pecuniary resources, are the causes of this momentary sterility, while Northern fanatics, well salaried by their societies, have put up in many places meeting-houses for them, where these simple, misguided people are drawn together by political excitement, inflamed harangues in the name of liberty, singing, shouting, clapping of hands, dancing, confused vociferations, and other indecorous exhibitions, which they fancifully call religious worship.

INSTITUTIONS.

Sisters of St. Joseph. The Sisters of St. Joseph labor with great zeal for the instruction of the young. They have schools and an academy in St. Augustine, in Jacksonville, in Mandarin, in Fernandina, and in Pilatka.

St. Joseph's Academy, St. Augustine. Rev. Mother Lazarus, superioress. This institution has extensive grounds and a large building for the accommodation of the boarders. The quiet of the place, the salubrity of the air, and the pleasant temperature of the atmosphere, winter and summer, make it a desirable place for a boarding-school. Young ladies there will be well provided for. Board and tuition in the ordinary branches, per scholastic year, $150.

St. Joseph's Academy, Jacksonville. This institution receives boarders, and has now a good number of young ladies, who receive a thorough education in all the branches. Rev. Mother Stanislaus, superioress. Board and tuition per year, $200.

St. Joseph's Academy, Fernandina. The Sisters of St. Joseph have opened a school, and are prepared to receive boarders. Rev. Mother Antonia, superioress. Board and tuition per year, $200.

St. Joseph's Academy, Mandarin, Fla. A neat and spacious building has just received its completion, and the Sisters of St. Joseph have opened a boarding-school and an academy for the children of the settlement. Rev. Mother Julia, superioress. The convent is built in the interior of the virgin forests of Florida, and presents special attractions for those who patronize a rural life. For the accommodation of the settlers, the board and tuition will be per year $150, and may be paid in the produce of the country at market value.

St. Joseph's Academy, Pilatka. The Sisters of St. Joseph have now a fine large building suited for an academy and day-school, and are prepared to receive scholars. Mother Josephine, superioress.

Sisters of the Holy Name of Jesus and Mary. These Sisters, lately come from Montreal, Canada, have opened schools and a boarding academy in Key West. Young ladies from Florida, and also from the Island of Cuba, which is very near, receive there a thorough education. Rev. Mother Félicité, superioress. The Sisters have here also a flourishing school of colored children.

Very many converts have lately been received into the Catholic faith. The country people especially are not Catholics, because they have yet to have the true faith unfolded to them. This State would be a great field for the establishment of religious missionary houses. Messis quidem multa; operarii autem pauci.

North Carolina holds out many inducements to immigrants whose object is to devote themselves to agricultural pursuits. In the western and northern portions of the State particularly, the climate is mild and salubrious, and the soil is well adapted for cereal and cotton crops. Land can be purchased at prices varying from 50 cents to $10 an acre. Catholic settlers are advised to select land contiguous to churches, where they may enjoy the ministrations of their holy religion.

It consists of—

1. A Bureau, executive in character, which has for its duty the attainment of the above objects.

2. An Association which, by its regular contributions, furnishes the Bureau the funds necessary to systematically carry on its labors.

The Bureau has so far been enabled to secure the control of Indian boarding-schools, supported by appropriations from the Government, in the following dioceses and vicariates, to wit:

Tulalip Agency,	Diocese of Nesqually	2

Cœur d'Alene Mission,	Vicariate of Idaho	1

Grand Rond "	Archdiocese of Oregon	3

N.B.—Besides the above schools, there is St. Colman's College, at Fermoy, with an average of 100 boarders. There is also a high-class intermediate school at Charleville, conducted by Rev. P. O'Leary, and an intermediate school at Mallow, conducted by the Brothers of St. Patrick, who also have a boys' primary school there.

The Cloyne Cathedral, now being erected at Queenstown, is a splendid Gothic pile, consisting of a nave, aisles, and transepts. It is 220 feet long by 70 feet wide, and about 95 feet from groined roofing to floor. The breadth of the transepts is 150 feet. The floor will be of white marble. This cathedral—splendid even in its yet unfinished state—will, when completed, be by far the finest church in the United Kingdom. It has already cost £100,000.

The Catholic population of Cloyne is 310,000, and there are about 18,000 Protestants of all denominations.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

The Subscribers would invite the attention of the Catholic public to their large Catalogue of Books, of their own manufacture, which they are prepared to sell to the Trade, Religious Institutions, and Public Libraries, at a large discount from the prices marked.

They would direct special attention to their Prayer-Books, which are got up in every size and every variety of binding and of price, and are the most saleable books published.

School-Books have especially been objects of their attention, and their list includes the Metropolitan Series of Readers, certainly the finest in the market, the well-known Readers of the Christian Brothers, Spellers, Grammars, Elementary Histories, Table-Books, Arithmetics, &c., for which they confidently solicit the examination and approval of teachers, and all engaged in the work of Catholic Education.

For the convenience of persons ordering books for libraries, they have given, in addition to the Catalogue of their own publications, an alphabetical list of all the Catholic books published in America, and a list of Foreign books, which they keep constantly in stock.

Those who favor them with their orders can depend on promptness and strict attention to their commands.

We keep constantly on hand a large and varied assortment of Prayer-Beads, Medals, Crucifixes, Holy Water Fonts, Lace Pictures, and other Catholic Articles.

Priests about to have missions at their Churches, can be supplied with Books, Beads, Crucifixes, Medals, Scapulars, Holy Water Fonts, Framed Pictures, and all other articles sold at missions, on such terms as to afford the Church a liberal aid in meeting the expenses of the mission, without wronging the purchasers by exorbitant overcharges.

Our arrangements and facilities are such, that we can really supply Mission Goods at lower rates and on better terms than any other house, even though an illusory advantage is held out elsewhere on some few articles.

Our position as the largest house in the Catholic trade makes our ability to do so unquestionable.

All articles remaining unsold, will be taken back at the close of the mission.

Any Work in this Catalogue sent free by Post on receipt of the price.

☞ Book-Binding in all its branches executed in the best manner, and at reasonable prices.

They especially invite the attention of Clergymen, Heads of Religious Orders and Institutions, Societies, Libraries, and Canvassers to this point.

BOOKBINDING.

An experience of over thirty years enables them with excellent workmen and the newest styles of machinery to defy competion. They can do work better and cheaper than any other house in the country, and have an assortment of stamps, devices, emblems, &c., for Catholic work unequalled anywhere in the world.

Particular attention is given to the binding of serial works, works issued in parts, music for churches or families. In all cases directions are implicitly followed, and the best result obtained. Music and numbers worn at the back by long use cannot be bound so as to be as flexible as what is new and strong.

School, parish and private libraries bound either in strong substantial style or in more elaborate bindings, without unnecessary delay, and with great care.

In all cases, either in town or country, it is most advisable to address this house directly, and then send the books by express. It avoids all misunderstanding as to directions and prevents delay and risk of loss, for we have no agents and are responsible only where parties deal directly with us.

Price lists of our various styles of binding sent on application.

BOOK PRINTING.

Clergymen, Communities, &c., wishing to get up books for their own private use, or for general circulation will find it a great economy both in money, time and anxiety to place the matter in our hands. Long experience in book making enables us to produce books at a far lower cost, and corresponding more closely to the style adopted than any one undertaking it himself. In these cases we will produce the book on most favorable terms, employing the very best workmen and material, and manufacturing the edition at a trifling advance on the actual cost to us, which will be far below the usual trade prices.

JOB PRINTING.

Institutions, &c., wishing really artistic typographical work, on Catalogues, Circulars, Prospectuses, Cards, Sunday School Tickets, with or without engraved vignettes will find that the work will be done more understandingly and in a higher degree of perfection by us than when left to ordinary printing houses.

BARBARA LEIGH.

By Agnes L. Sadlier.

One vol. 16mo, cloth, ... $0.75

A better or more suitable gift-book for youth we know not than this new publication of "Barbara Leigh." It is interesting in the extreme, and elegantly written, and proves itself on every page to be the product of a fruitful imagination and a well cultivated intellect. It is a little book of rare merit, full of moral reflection, and forming a pleasant contrast to the prevailing nauseous fiction of the day. Unlike the thousands of present story writers, the authoress takes her characters from ordinary life, clothes them in the robes of humanity and piety, and conducts them through trial and suffering to the glorious consummation of a Christian life.—Tablet.

GRETCHEN'S GIFT;

Or, A Noble Sacrifice.

By AGNES L. SADLIER.

One vol. 16mo, cloth, ... $0.75
" " " cloth, gilt edges, ... 1.25

This is one of the most exquisite little tales it has been our pleasure to peruse in a long time. The author, who is a deft artificer of words, presents in easy, racy English a story that promises to be of standard excellence and popularity.—Times.

This is a beautiful tale, told with great power and in elegant though simple diction. For some reason, whether it be through accident or design, we know not, it is said to be a translation from the German. There is a quaintness throughout the whole story that does certainly remind us of the inimitable Canon Schmid. But we can scarcely agree that the talents of the young authoress should be deprived of their meed of praise for successful originality by putting down as a translation what is really an original and beautiful fiction. We wish the able writer all success in the field of literature she has chosen, and in which we can promise that high honors await her.—Tablet.

"Valerie Aylmer" is the first work of a young Southern author of brilliant promise, the scenes of whose story are mainly in Louisiana and Maryland, in the years immediately following the late civil war.

"The book has genuine merit. It is written with both vigor and grace the plot is well constructed, the actors are live persons and talk like people of sense and culture, and the descriptions are very graphic."—New Bedford Mercury.

"A thorough American novel. The heroine is lovely, accomplished, and brilliant. The chief merit of the tale lies in its dialogue. Rarely has the conversational tone been so thoroughly preserved."—Phila. Press.

"It is very cleverly written, the dialogue is sprightly, and the characters well drawn. Certainly this book is one of the best and most readable novels of the season."—Philadelphia Post.

"The characters are boldly drawn and well defined. 'Valerie' is charmingly pronounced, and is a type of the spirited loveliness that has not been causelessly commended south of the Ohio. Altogether, the story is well sustained and creditable. The author shows fine descriptive powers."—Philadelphia Gazette.

"All hail a genuine American story and a genuine American story-teller, a story-teller to the manner born, a story racy of the soil! Here is a novel of real life as current as a newspaper, and as abundant in local color, incident, and spirit; brilliant, natural, and commonplace; the best novel of society yet produced on this side of the Atlantic."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

"The plot is interesting, the characters good, the dialogue amusing, and the whole book well done."—N. Y. Albion.

"There is so much freshness in the tone, so much nature in the personages, and so much interest in the story, that 'Morton House' is one of the most attractive books we have read."—Boston Transcript.

"The author's style is flowing, easy, and vivid; her delineations of character graphic and true to nature. There is a fascination in all she writes that betokens an original genius."—Baltimore American.

"The author of 'Morton House' has the genuine dramatic perceptions which are indispensable to whoever would depict human character; and she is possessed of a literary style which is rarely found except in conjunction with other and higher mental qualities. A Golden Book of Meditations.

A THOUGHT

FOR

EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR.

By PERE DE BOYLESVE, S.J.

Translated from the French.

1 vol. 32mo, cloth		$0 75
"	" red edges	1 00
"	morocco extra, gilt or red edges	2 00
"	English calf, " "	2 50

A valuable book, and we can safely prophesy that we shall take up a score of publications before finding another of the same dimensions as vigorous and comprehensive. In our opinion it is thoroughly well done. It fits the comparison of Ecclesiastes, "The words of the wise are as goads, and as nails deeply fastened in," for there is in every thought a unity and point that make it capable of being driven in like a nail. The reflections are very appropriate to the text, always striking, and in many instances of singular power.—Dublin Review.

We welcome with delight this beautiful little volume, and commend it to the attention of our readers as earnestly as possible. It gets over at once the difficulty of those who have found it next to impossible to snatch time enough from their daily occupation for meditation. . . . It has a claim to be accepted as a genuine and sterling volume of Catholic devotion.—Weekly Register.

For those who are much occupied with worldly affairs this is the very book. For each day of the year there is a "thought," a prayer, and a "practice"—all very short. The translator has done his work well, and the book has received the "Imprimatur" of the Cardinal-Archbishop of Westminster.—Tablet.

This little volume is designed as a book of meditation for those who have limited time at their disposal after morning prayer. . . . We may mention that it is considered to be unequalled for its purpose.—Freeman's Journal.

The great advantage of this book is its brevity. Five minutes is more than sufficient for each day. Every Catholic should have this handy work.—Catholic Times.

CHURCH DESIGNS.

TEN WORKING DESIGNS

FOR

Catholic Churches,

PRACTICAL ESSAYS

ON

Ventilation, Heating, Adaptability, and Acoustics.

By CHARLES SHOLL.

This work has been completed and designed by a professional Architect, of large experience both in Europe and America, who has of late years turned his attention exclusively to Ecclesiastical Architecture. When completed it will contain Ten complete Designs for cheap Churches, costing from $2,600 to $25,000, and respectively seating from 256 to 1,000 adults and a proportionate number of children. We can guarantee that each Church will be a correct type of the style adopted in every detail.

Designs E. I. and K are intended for congregations of ample means, as the MATERIAL adopted, and the GENERAL FINISH, is of an expensive character.

No. Design	Materials.	Style.	Capacity.

" I	Stone.	Flamboyant Gothic, Spire.	1000	"	72	"
" K	Stone.	Florid Gothic, Spire.	1000	"	72	"

We have been called on repeatedly by numbers of the Right Rev'd Clergy to furnish a work of this description, and have been prevented up to this time by our inability to find a person qualified to do justice to so important a subject. By the admission of experienced architects, the work is now such as will stand the severest criticisms. We therefore address ourselves especially to this body to encourage our efforts in developing a true spirit of Catholic Architecture throughout the land.

These Designs have been submitted to the Most Rev'd Archbishops of New York and Halifax, and the Right Rev. Bishop of Charleston, the two latter of whom were in the city, who have kindly furnished us with the following

APPROBATIONS.

NEW YORK, March 1, 1869.

MESSRS. D. & J. SADLIER & CO.,—Your project of publishing a series of Designs for Catholic Churches, accompanied by Working Plans and Specifications, prepared by a competent Architect, is one which meets my hearty approval, and which, when accomplished, will, I think, be very useful to the Rev. Clergy, especially in localities where such designs, combining taste with economy, cannot easily be procured. Wishing for your enterprise the ample patronage it merits, I remain, dear sirs, your most obedient servant,

JOHN, ARCHBISHOP OF NEW YORK.

HALIFAX, NOVA SCOTIA April 12, 1869.

DEAR SIRS,—I have examined with deepest interest your first series of Designs for the construction of Catholic Churches of every size and order of Architecture, and it is simply true to say, that this work, so auspiciously commenced, has my heartiest approbation.

The want of such a practical book on Catholic Architecture for the last twenty years, in the remote dioceses and country parishes of the United States and elsewhere in America, has cost the Catholic population of this Continent, I am sure, many millions of dollars without any commensurate result.

In the present work, Bishops and Priests not having access to a first-class Architect often within a circuit of many hundred miles, are always sure of finding a first-class Plan and all information regarding site, cost, details, etc., etc., etc. Moreover, instead of having to depend on the ever limited resources of any single Architect, they will have, as it were, a boundless variety of Designs and most valuable suggestions to choose from, as will appear best suited to the wants and resources of each locality, and the true character and magnitude of the work on hand. With this expression of my humble views on this most important and useful work, I am, dear sirs, very respectfully yours,

THOMAS L. CONNOLLY, ARCHBISHOP OF HALIFAX.

D. & J. SADLIER & Co.

MESSRS. D. & J. SADLIER,—Gentlemen: It is with exceeding pleasure that I learn you have undertaken the publication of a series of designs for Churches, to be erected at moderate cost; and still further, that to those detailed designs and drawings, you will unite clear and complete specifications, all drawn up by a skillful and experienced Architect. Such a work will be truly a benefit, as by it, miscalculations, errors, omissions, etc., which vex the soul of whoever undertakes the erection of a Church, may in great measure be avoided. P. S.—Please send me four copies as soon as ready. Respectfully, your obedient servant,

P. N. LYNCH, BISHOP OF CHARLESTON, S. C.

BISHOP'S HOUSE, NEWARK, June 10, 1869.

Having examined the Series of Architectural Designs and Plans for Churches, about to be published by the Messrs. SADLIER, I agree in the above approval and recommendation. I remain, very truly yours,

J. ROOSEVELT BAYLEY, BISHOP OF NEWARK.

ST. PAUL, MINN., Jan. 25, 1869.

DEAR SIRS,—I am rejoiced to hear of your project, viz.: the issuing "Ten Working Designs for Catholic Churches" containing details, specifications, figured dimensions, etc., and that you have found a man equal to the task. I have no doubt as to your being fully remunerated for your labor and outlay. Let me express the hope that the Architect will have an eye to the requirements of the taste and style of our times and country. You may put me down as subscriber to the amount of four copies. Faithfully yours,

THOMAS, BISHOP OF ST. PAUL.

D. & J. SADLIER & Co., New York.

Trifling modifications will enable any other Christian denomination to use these designs, and adapt them to their different form of worship.

The number printed must depend on the extent of subscriptions. The edition will be strictly limited to a few copies beyond the list; it will be impossible to obtain it hereafter except at an advanced rate. Subscribers should therefore send in their names immediately.

The Rt. Rev. Bishops and Clergy who feel the want of this long-desired book, will therefore be kind enough to correspond with us at once, to avoid disappointment which all will regret.

Although they have labored for thirty years to increase the libraries of Catholic Churches and families with valuable works, the publishers feel convinced that they have never offered a book that will prove of greater service to both Clergy and people, and consequently to the Church at large.

The work is large folio, containing 45 plates, 75 pages of letter-press, and is finished in the best style, on toned paper, and partially illuminated. Folio size, 20 × 14. Price $15. Sent by Mail or Express on receipt of price. Half Mor. beveled and gilt edges $20

DE CONCILIO'S PHILOSOPHY.

Intellectual Philosophy.

EMBRACING LOGIC, ONTOLOGY, AND ANTHROPOLOGY.

By Rev. J. De Concilio.

ONE VOL. 12MO, . - - . NET, $1 00

"There are exceedingly able works in other languages already published on the subject treated by Father de Concilio. The names of their authors are almost sacred ; certainly they are endeared not only to Catholic but to universal literature ; but assuredly, in its simple, progressive, and, to borrow the phraseology of the scientists, evolutionary form, the present work has a charming adaptability not possessed by its predecessors.

"The treatise on ontology is in a special degree instructive and valuable. He gives us in the most comprehensible form a positive system of philosophy, as synthetical as it is analytical. He not only demolishes but constructs. He not only dispels error but substitutes truth. And this he accomplishes by the more natural process of development than by the crushing process of demolition.

"Another and a crowning character of the work is the perspicacity of its language. Works on abstruse subjects are, as a rule, as conspicuous for their obscurity as their ability. As has been justly remarked of the little Catholic Catechism, that it contains the highest system of philosophy and yet is easy of comprehension to all minds, so we may truly say of this excellent system of philosophy that while it unfolds the entire economy of Christian truth, yet its apprehension is as facile as its scope is comprehensive.

"This work is intended to be a text-book for schools, and it is earnestly to be hoped it will meet with the ready and general reception it merits. We live in an age and country where every one reads, and when minds are panting for knowledge. If not to the pure, they will go to the poisoned, founts. We are daily called on to defend the truth, and must meet error in all its subtle and protean forms. The Catholic Church is truth, partaking of the attributes of her Maker, the channel of salvation for human souls, and it is the duty of every one to know the truth she embodies and be able to defend it. —New York Tablet.

Correspondence invited in reference to the adoption and introduction of De Concilio's Philosophy in schools and academies.

Special terms for introduction will be made, and copies for examination, with a view to introducting the work, will be sent by mail, post-paid, at introductory rates. Address

SERMONS

EVERY SUNDAY IN THE YEAR

AND FOR THE

HOLIDAYS OF OBLIGATION.

By Rev. WILLIAM GAHAN, Ex-Prov. O. S. A., with a Preface by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Walsh, D. D., of Halifax, N. S., to which are added an Index of References and a Synopsis of each Discourse. Edited by Rev. JAMES O'LEARY, D. D. A new, revised, and corrected edition. One vol., 8vo. Cloth, extra beveled boards. $3.00. Half morocco, $5.00.

In this volume the faithful will find a sermon for every Sunday in the year and every holiday of obligation, which those of them who are prevented from attending Church and assisting at Mass may read with great edification. Father Gahan's style is glowing and sometimes florid; his method clear and logical; and the reflections interwoven with the doctrine natural and pertinent. He worthily occupies a high rank among the distinguished champions of the faith to whom Ireland has given birth. His various works of piety and learning are enshrined in the memory of many an Irish Catholic, and are held in high esteem. His sermons contain a valuable and large fund of sound morality and pious instruction, and are equally suited to the learned and to the uneducated.—Catholic Standard.

The Messrs. Sadlier have here reprinted, in fine style, the noblest efforts of this great divine, a service to the public of no mean importance, as the original edition of this estimable work had some time since been exhausted The fame of Father Gahan as a pulpit orator is matter of history. He has long since passed to a better world to receive the reward of his arduous labors, but he still lives in the burning words of wisdom and sanctity which he has left as a precious legacy for the instruction and edification of the faithful. The preacher will find this book an assistant that will lighten the heavy load of his many burdens, while to the general reader it will furnish the richest of pious, learned, intellectual food. The book is a very valuable acquisition to Catholic literature.—Irish American.

Nothing better can be said for this modest volume of excellent sermons than is said in the prefaces. Though adapted to the comprehension of every reader, the clergy will probably be most benefited. Some instruction will be found suitable to every holiday of obligation during the Christian year. In most parishes but one priest is to be found, and in the multitude of their labors but little time is permitted for study and the preparation of sermons. Yet preaching is the right arm of the Church for the dissemination of religious truths. Protestants have preaching alone; all acts of worship being virtually discarded by them as superfluous. Yet we see how with this one instrument of the Catholic evangel they continue to exist and propagate their errors. It is to be feared Catholics do not value it sufficiently. One word more: These are Irish sermons. By far the larger part of our parishes have at least a sprinkling of Hibernians, yet very many of our priests are French, Italian, Belgian, and German. They cannot do better than to study English idioms, adorned with occasional sprigs of the shamrock.—Catholic Advocate.

OR,

LEAVES FROM MY EXPERIENCE.

BY

O. A. BROWNSON, LL.D.

A new revised edition, edited by his son, Henry F. Brownson. 1 vol. 12mo, cloth extra, with portrait, $2 00.

It is full of interest as it is, containing much useful information respec ing the various sects, schools, and parties with which the Convert at different times came in contact, with sketches of their several founders and chiefs. Passing through the experiences of Presbyterianism to become a Universalist, and a World Reformer and Humanitarian, at last, after many vicissitudes, the earnest, single-hearted enquirer obtained the blissful glimpse of the one truth. Like many another similarly favored, he could exclaim:

"Darkness and doubt are now flying away,
No longer I roam in conjecture forlorn—
So breaks on the traveller, faint and astray,
The bright and the balmy effulgence of morn."

—London Catholic Register.

We need not introduce this book to our readers. We are glad to see another edition called for. The experiences of such a mind as Brownson are of vital interest. "I have not addressed my work," says the author, "especially to Catholics or non-Catholics, but to the public at large. My purpose has been to render to all who may take an interest in the matter an account of my conversion to Catholicity, and to enable the curious in such matters to discover the connecting link between mv past and my present life, in order to enable them to discover the connecting link between nature and grace, the natural and the supernatural, and to perceive that, in becoming a Catholic, a man has no occasion to divest himself of his nature, or to forego the exercise of his reason. . . . I have aimed to write an instructive, not an amusing book."—Pilot.

Great National History of Ireland. By the Abbé McGeoghegan, and continued by John Mitchel. Handsomely illustrated, and bound in French morocco. Blocked binding, two clasps, price, ... $18.00

It is the most complete and elegant edition ever published of the History of Ireland. McGeoghegan's work stops at the Fall of Limerick. The History from the Fall of Limerick to our day has been written by one who has been himself an historic character, and whose judgment, research, and ability as a writer have ever commanded respect. In itself that History from the pen of John Mitchel is the most valuable contribution to Irish History ever issued in this country, and certainly no more fitting continuation could be found for the work of McGeoghegan.

UBALDO AND IRENE.

Ubaldo and Irene. An Historical Romance of the Time of the French Revolution and Empire. By Rev. Antonio Bresciana, S.J. Translated from the Italian by Anna T. Sadlier. Two volumes, 12mo. cloth extra, ... $4.00
" " gilt edges, ... 5.00

"There is not certainly one among all the interesting volumes of the gifted Jesuit, Father Bresciani, a work that, like "Ubaldo and Irene," combines so exquisitely in itself, and to such a powerful degree, every quality that merits for a great literary composition the name of excellent. From the moment we open the volumes until we conclude their attentive perusal each succeeding chapter seems to increase and surpass its predecessor in deepening interest. A thorough and profound knowledge of the history of the awful period of European revolution in which the present century was ushered into the world is displayed in this remarkable historical romance. From the very opening of that season of horrors until its awful termination in the retreat from Moscow the whole is pictured out before us in undying colors. The frightful gangrene of the dark and secret societies that ever since the time of Charles II. of England has indelibly tainted and poisoned the state politics of Europe—organizations which Napoleon I. used so effectively in his wondrous career of rapid conquest—is here portrayed in all its repulsive horrors.

"In this work, more perhaps than any other of his beautiful stories, do we see the characterizing genius of Bresciani. And it has been said that the great Jesuit himself thought it was in "Ubaldo and Irene" that he dealt his most effective blow against secret societies with which Europe, and especially Italy, were then honeycombed.

"For pathos, power of description, riches, learning, and eloquence that fascinates and carries one almost unconsciously before it, Father Bresciani is here at his best endeavor

"The translation before us is well and skilfully made. The gifted translator has followed the thought rather than the words of the original, and throughout she has given indications of an intellectual power and versatile grasp of thought, along with a Protean command of expression, that augurs well for the literary future before her.

"We wish her success in her career, and we can certainly promise that she will add laurels to a name already honored in literature."—Tablet.

EXTRACT FROM THE PREFACE.

The fame of Father Bresciani as among the first Catholic novelists of our day is long since established, and his name on the title-page of a volume suffices to recommend it. In this particular work, which fairly teems with information, the author has devoted himself in a special manner to the task of exposing the dark and deadly nature of secret organizations and their destructive influence on human society. He shows them to us in their true colors, as the enemies of justice and morality, leagued together over the whole surface of the globe for the subversion of religion and social order. He shows them as the enemy of the rich, whom they would despoil; and still more especially the enemy of the poor, whom with delusive hopes they would lead to deeper ruin. The better to carry out his designs, the author has chosen the troublous and eventful years between 1790 and 1814. Hence his assertions he shows to be borne out by fact. For each one he gives us the historical proof, so that we have not merely his own opinions, clothed in the disguise of fiction, but the terrible lesson of past events to justify them. He portrays all too vividly the horrors of the French Revolution, and presages the misfortunes that have since fallen upon Italy.

. . . We are present at the sittings of the Council of Ten, or the orgies of Cagliostro and his Egyptian masonry. We are at a court reception in the royal household of Savoy, or we visit in her prison the queen whose golden hair, so sadly turned to gray, was dyed with blood on the revolutionary guillotine. We are in familiar converse with the first Napoleon, or we follow the hapless Louis to his doom.

The book is a wonderful pageant, in which kings and peasants, monks and nobles, soldiers and ladies, sorcerers and bandits play their part upon a historic stage.

EDMONDO:

A SKETCH OF

Roman Manners and Customs.

By Rev. ANTONIO BRESCIANI, S.J.

Translated from the Italian.

One volume 12mo, cloth extra, $2; do., do., gilt edges, $2 50.

Father Bresciani, it is needless to say to those who have read his previous historical stories, is a writer of no ordinary power. He possesses in an eminent degree the rare ability to combine instruction and amusement. Whatever emanates from his pen is sure to possess the attraction of a graceful style, while his fruitful imagination colors and adorns his sketches as only a true artist can. The volume before us is not only interesting, but valuable in correcting widely prevalent misconceptions of the real character of the laboring classes of the people of Rome, particularly of those who are commonly styled the Trasteverini. The delineations of their habits and pursuits and peculiar ideas and characteristics are well drawn and true to life. The plan of the book is simple but well conceived, and into it are woven many interesting episodes and explanations which serve to convey juster impressions of the people among whom the scenes of the story are laid.—The Catholic Record, May, 1877.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"This work is a striking contrast to the majority of the novelettes which continually issue from the press. It is an historical romance of the Middle Ages, depicted with a bold and vigorous hand, and abounding with stirring and momentous events - a sensational story, indeed, in the truest sense of the term. Great praise is due to the translator for the skilful manner in which she has fulfilled her task, which has evidently been to her a labor of love. The style is so easy and animated that the work does not read at all like a translation. The great struggle between Pope Gregory VII. and the Emperor Henry IV. is fully described in the course of the narrative, and suggests many comparisons with events now passing under our own eyes. We look in vain, however, for a new Mathilda of Canossa to fight single-handed against the power of the tyrant in defence of the Chair of Peter. The remains of this pious heroine lie interred in the Vatican, while her patrimonial estates in Pisa, Lombardy, and other places, which she bequeathed to the Holy See, have been ruthlessly torn from their rightful owner by alien hands. As a vivid picture of European life in the Middle Ages this work has an especial interest, apart from its attractions as a romance."—London Weekly Register.

"Those who have read 'The Jew of Verona' or 'Lionello' need not be told that this book of Father Bresciani's, treating of the time of Henry IV. of infamous memory and the great Pope St. Gregory VII., must be intensely interesting. We will not detract from the pleasure the readers of the story will have by recounting the incidents. Suffice it to say that it contains powerfully-drawn pictures of those troublous times, of the manners, customs, superstitions, impiety, and the faith, zeal, devotion, and sanctity of the men of the Middle Ages. It contains, too, a true and faithful account of the struggles, continued through so many years and so many changes, between the Emperor of Germany, Henry IV., and Gregory VII., a truly great Pope and Saint."—Catholic Standard.

The contrast between Catholic and Protestant Missions.

CHRISTIAN MISSIONS,

Their Agents and their Results.

By T. W. MARSHALL.

Two volumes 12mo, cloth extra,	$4.00
half morocco,	6.00
half calf, library style,	7.50

Cardinal McCloskey says of this work:

"The work is a most admirable one, fully deserving of all the high encomiums which have already been passed upon it. The import and subject of which it treats HAS NEVER BEFORE BEEN DISCUSSED IN SUCH A THOROUGH AND MASTERLY MANNER."

Archbishop Purcell, Archbishop of Cincinnati, says:

"That he has read 'Marshall's Christian Missions' with untiring interest and much instruction, and that he hopes it will be generally read."

Archbishop M. J. Spalding of Baltimore wrote the publishers:

"Mr. Marshall's research takes in the whole field of missionary labor in the various quarters of the globe, exhibiting, along with the agents employed, the results obtained, going fully into the enquiry, and clearly establishing the fact, on cumulative testimony, chiefly Protestant, that the ministers of the Catholic Church ALONE have succeeded, in all ages and in all countries, in the great work of converting the nations; and that Protestant missionary labor, even on the showing of those most interested in them, have proved a failure, by remaining almost entirely barren of results. I hope that every Catholic, and in fact every family in the country, will obtain a copy of this most interesting and instructive work."

Archbishop Bayley, the late Archbishop of Baltimore, said of Marshall's "Christian Missions":

"It is one of the most interesting and instructive books which have been published in our day. Catholics should read it in order that they may learn what the Church has done in this most important matter; and Protestants ought to read it not only that they may learn what the Church is doing, but may find out what their ministers are not doing.

"What Balmes has accomplished by his famous work in regard to Protestantism and Catholicity compared in their effects on the civilization of Europe, Marshall has accomplished in regard to the Protestant and Catholic Missions compared in their agents and results all over the world. Such a work was much needed; it has filled up a vacuum which was much felt in our English Catholic literature."

Archbishop Connolly, the late Archbishop of Halifax, N. S., said of this work:

"As a repertory of most useful information, and a book of reference on Modern Church History, I am convinced it ought to be in the hands of every ecclesiastic and of all those interested in the spread of God's only religion on the earth. It puts forth the whole force and truth of Catholicity in a more tangible and irresistible manner than any controversial work I have ever seen."

Bishop Grace, Bishop of St. Paul, Minn., says of this work:

"The nature of the work required amplest details, but these are relieved of all irksomeness by the manner in which they are given, and the facts and authorities are so interspersed with historical allusions, together with judicious reflections and profound observations, as to render the book invaluable to every clergyman and every lover of truth, as they will find it greatly serviceable also for purposes besides the one directly contemplated in its pages."

Elements of Intellectual Philosophy. Embracing Logic, Ontology, and Anthropology. By Rev. J. De Concilio. 1 vol. 12mo, cloth, net, 1.00
"The treatise on ontology is in a special degree instructive and valuable. It gives us in the most comprehensible form a positive system of philosophy, as synthetical as it is analytical. Father De Concilio not only demolishes but constructs. He not only dispels error but substitutes truth. And this he accomplishes by the more natural process of development than by the crushing process of demolition. Another and a crowning character of the work is the perspicacity of its language. Works on abstruse subjects are, as a rule, as conspicuous for their obscurity as their ability. As has been justly remarked of the little Catholic Catechism, that it contains the highest system of philosophy and yet is easy of comprehension to all minds, so we may truly say of this excellent system of philosophy that while it unfolds the entire economy of Christian truth, yet its apprehension is as facile as its scope is comprehensive."

It is the intention of the publishers to continue this series of Cheap and Popular Works without limit, should the undertaking continue to receive the encouragement and approval which has so far been bestowed upon it.

Nothing of the kind has yet been offered to the Catholic public that gives so much value for the money. The low price at which these books are sold, in quantities, enables their distribution in parishes to that extent as will, it is hoped, counteract the evil influences which result from a class of literature circulated to such an alarming extent under the title of "Dime" and "cheap" novels.

LIFE OF
ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI.

TRANSLATED FROM THE FRENCH OF

REV. CANDIDE CHALIPPE,

BY THE

CONGREGATION OF THE ORATORY OF ST. PHILIP NERI, LONDON.

A new and revised edition, with a Preface by FATHER CHARLES DA NAZZANO, O.S.F.

Two vols. in one, cloth extra, 12mo, $2; cloth, gilt edges, $2 50.

This Life will teach the people of to-day that the precious ornaments of a Christian are those which ennoble the soul, not those which pander to the irregular appetites of the body. It will teach men that "dust thou art, and unto dust thou shalt return" was never spoken of the soul, which is akin to the angels—intellectual, unmaterial, undying, and eternal. Consequently, its adornment by the practice of virtue, and not the gratifications of the body, should form the lofty object of man's ambition. The prevailing sentiment of our age is that we enjoy the good things that are present; that we clothe ourselves in soft raiment; fill ourselves with costly meat and drink. Such, however, is not the teaching of Him born in a stable and pre-eminently styled the Man of Sorrows. Such is not the lesson taught by the life of his fervent disciple, St. Francis; but rather that the poor in spirit possess the Kingdom of Heaven; that meat and drink are not the Kingdom of Heaven, neither is the gratification of the bodily appetites, but is like to a merchant seeking a priceless treasure and selling all he has to procure it. Since such is the lesson taught by the Life of St. Francis, great good can be effected by its publication. Through the efforts of the eminent publishing house of D. & J. Sadlier & Co., we are at last presented with what justly deserves the name of a LIFE OF ST. FRANCIS, founded on the labors of the great Irish Franciscan, Luke Wading.

It stands in no need of ours to recommend it to a generous public. We have read the work, and we heartily commend it as a true and succinct account of the life of our seraphic father, St. Francis.

Sent by mail, postage prepaid, to any address, upon receipt of the advertised price, by the publishers. Address

Missal for the Laity.

CONTAINING THE MASSES FOR THE SUNDAYS AND FESTIVALS OF THE YEAR.

Translated from the Latest Edition of the Roman Missal.

PUBLISHED WITH THE APPROBATION OF CARDINAL McCLOSKEY.

This elegantly-printed volume is not a mere reprint of some English Missal for the Laity, full of obsolete matter or offices peculiar to England. It is carefully made from the latest Latin edition of the Roman Missal, so as to embrace recent offices, Masses, collects, epistles, etc., and introducing all changes recently made.

2. The Masses of Holy Week are given fully in Latin and English, so that no other book need be required at the Masses during that season.

3. The Ordinary of the Mass, with the prefaces for the whole year, arranged so that no difficulty can occur, are printed, as in the Roman Missal, just before Easter Sunday. This will make it more convenient also, as this part used constantly will be in the middle of the book, dividing it evenly.

4. The Mass of all Sundays, Holydays of Obligation, and all such days of devotion as are generally, will be found here, much of it in Latin and English.

Every pains has thus been taken to render it accurate in matter and elegant in form.

Care has been taken, too, that the Epistles, Gospels, etc., are given with the introductory and closing words of the Missal, without including more than is found there, or omitting any part.

The Nun of Kenmare's Prayer-Book.

St. Patrick's Manual; or, The Manual of St. Patrick. Being a guide to Catholic devotion. Compiled from the most approved sources, and adapted to all conditions of life. By Sister Mary Francis Cusack, "The Nun of Kenmare." 1 vol. 18mo.

There are a great many good and useful Prayer-Books, but as different persons have different tastes in such matters, and as many persons like to have more than one Manual of Devotion, it is hoped that this addition to the number will be acceptable. Indeed, the writer has been urged so constantly and earnestly for the last six years to compile this book that she could no longer refuse.

As it is most desirable that we should understand every word we use when praying to our good God, very plain and simple words are used in this work, as it is intended principally for those who have not much time for study.

It is divided into three parts.

The First Part contains Private Devotions; the Second Part, Public Devotions for Mass and Benediction; the Third Part contains Devotions and Intentions for Approaching the Sacraments and for Special Occasions.

A good, clear type has been specially chosen, and the prayers most likely to be said most frequently are given in ample print.

The compiler of this Prayer-Book earnestly entreats the prayers of all who may use it.

The Publishers, in presenting their new Bible Dictionary and Concordance to the public, desire to call attention to the superior class of wood-engraving with which the text is illustrated, no expense or pains having been spared to render this portion of the work of unusual excellence. To add still further to its value, an Introductory History of the Bible is added, and, as now issued, this is the most complete and valuable Catholic Family Bible to be found.

To guard against inferior books, which are offered to the Catholic public by unscrupulous persons in the interest of their Protestant publishers, who in many instances publish a list of names to their approbations that are unauthorized, and illustrated with the same steel plates that are used in their Protestant version, see that you get a work that has the imprint of a well-known Catholic house, which will be a guarantee that it is free from the errors that exist in these so-called editions of Catholic Bibles issued by Protestant publishers.

RT. REV. RICHARD CHALLONER, Bishop of Debra,

WITH HIS ANNOTATIONS FOR CLEARING UP THE PRINCIPAL DIFFICULTIES OF HOLY WRIT.

It will form a beautiful post-quarto volume, and be as unique in size, excellence of typography and binding, as it is in its perfect accuracy.

The publishers invite the attention of all to this edition of the Holy Scriptures, as one that in beauty and legibility of type, as well as convenience of form, surpasses any heretofore presented.

extraordinary care has been taken to have the text perfect. For the first time, Challoner's own edition of the Bible is really given. Some years since, Cardinal Wiseman remarked that the names Douay and Rheims, as applied to the current editions, are absolute misnomers. He expressed regret that Challoner's revision had not been respected and adhered to, till such time as, by a competent body of translators, an entirely new translation was made, and adopted by the proper authorities.

Acting on this suggestion, the publishers have, by the authority of the Most. Reverend Archbishop of New York, here given Bishop Challoner's text from his own edition of 1750, correcting merely typographical errors, and conforming in punctuation and the orthography of proper names, to the standard edition of the Vulgate of 1592.

THE Publishers, in calling attention to their New Series of Readers, are pleased to announce that during the long interval of time which has necessarily been devoted to the preparation of the new books of the present Series, no expense or pains have been spared to produce them in a manner which shall meet with the approbation of all those interested in their success.

To those engaged in the education of our Catholic youth in this country, and others who watch with interest the progress that is made towards advancing the standard of excellence in any new Text-Books which are issued with a view for use in our schools, we feel confident that a comparison of the merits of the present Series, as compared with the many books of this class now before the public, will result in the endorsement of the books belonging to the New Graded Metropolitan Series as the best of any that have as yet been published.

The greatest care has been exercised in the gradation of the books, so that the advance shall be "step by step," while the Catholic spirit contained in the lessons throughout the books, together with the fine engravings with which they have been so handsomely illustrated, cannot fail to make the books not only popular and attractive to the pupil, but to the teacher as well.

The Series is comprised in the following books: The Golden Primer, the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth Readers, with the Illustrated Spelling-Book, and Speller and Definer.

It has been the aim of the Publishers to supply, in the Metropolitan Readers, a want long felt in Catholic School publications—a Series of Readers that would be thoroughly Catholic in every particular, but at the same time strictly impartial. The Readers generally in use, no matter how carefully compiled, emanating from Protestant sources, have naturally a Protestant bias, and consequently leave a Protestant impression on the pupils' minds. In fact, they have entirely ignored the history and traditions of Catholic countries and Catholic races. In the compilation of the Metropolitan Series we have taken a wide and large selection from Catholic as well as Protestant authors, so that the pupils may have a correct knowledge of their country and its free institutions, as well as the Christian lands from which their fathers sprang.

THE FIRST AND SECOND READERS are arranged according to the following advice from the saintly Fénelon. Speaking of children, he says: "Give them books adorned with beautiful pictures and well-formed characters; all that pleases the imagination facilitates study. Select books full of short and pleasing stories, then be not afraid that the child will not learn to read perfectly. Let him pronounce naturally as he speaks; other tones are always bad, and savor of college declamations. When his tongue becomes freer, his chest stronger, and the habit of reading more frequent, he will read without difficulty, with more grace, and more distinctly."

THE THIRD READER has been compiled from original sources, and not from other Readers. The Compiler has endeavored in this book to make the reading-matter interesting, as well as morally and religiously instructive, being decidedly of opinion that in lessons intended for school-reading all that is dry and tedious should be avoided; it is, therefore, of great importance that those lessons be presented to them in as pleasing a form as possible.

THE METROPOLITAN FOURTH READER is a continuation of the same style, calculated to make the pupils love their Reading Lessons, and inculcates at the same time lessons of morality from the best writers. It contains lessons in Articulation, Accent, Emphasis, and adds brief definitions in all the words of the Reading Lessons that are given as exercises in Spelling.

THE METROPOLITAN FIFTH READER begins with a full course of instruction in the principles of Rhetorical Reading. Being intended for advanced pupils, we have aimed at making it a key to true Literature; for we are convinced that as a general thing our youth leave school with scarcely an idea of who are good authors, or of what books they should read—no standard for reading has been given them, no taste has been formed—hence the eagerness with which most of them peruse the silly, sentimental trash daily appearing from the press. But the greatest evil is that we have no school-book which gives our pupils any knowledge of Catholic authors. A short biographical sketch is added to the various selections.

THE SIXTH READER; or, BOOK OF ORATORY. This work contains selections from distinguished orators, ancient and modern, carefully arranged. As this volume is intended for academies of both sexes, care has been taken to make it suitable for either. Young ladies are not expected, indeed, to become orators, yet, as proper and elegant reading is almost impossible without a knowledge of the principles of elocution and practice in delivery, elocution must form a branch of their education, and a suitable manual, such as we venture to say we here present, cannot fail to be appreciated.

THE

YOUNG LADIES' READER,

Compiled and arranged for

ADVANCED CLASSES

BY

MRS. JAMES SADLIER.

A New Edition, Revised and Enlarged.

FROM THE PREFACE.

The Reader here presented to teachers of Catholic Female Schools has been compiled with scrupulous care, and is the fruit of much patient research. Being intended solely for the use of the more advanced pupils, who are already supposed to have mastered the merely mechanical art of spelling out words, the lessons are arranged, as will be seen, in longer paragraphs than is usual in reading books intended for lower classes.

All teachers know, by experience, that if a boy or girl be interested in what the class is reading, it is tantalizing to be forced to leave off after reading a few lines, no regard being had to the natural breaks or paragraphs designed by the author. I have, therefore, where it was at all possible to do so, followed the respective authors in the division of their paragraphs, hoping that neither teachers nor pupils will find them too long.

In my choice of lessons, I have endeavored to give a fair representation, as far as the prescribed limits would allow, of the standard authors of this and the ages immediately preceding, both in prose and poetry. In doing so, I found it expedient to cull for my literary nosegay many flowers—especially of poetry—hitherto unnoticed, which I found scattered here and there on the highways and by-ways of literature, thus introducing several authors, little or not at all known to the general public, hoping that they may help to foster that taste for the beautiful, the noble, and the pure which I would fain see cultivated amongst Catholic youth.

I did not think it either just or wise to confine myself to Catholic authors; but in the selections I have given from non-Catholic authors, I have tried to exclude all that could, in any degree, infringe on Catholic faith or morals. I have endeavored to make the selections as new as possible; but some, from the older writers, although necessarily more or less familiar, I did not feel warranted in excluding.

Such as it is, I hope this YOUNG LADIES' READER will be found to to fill, in some measure, a void long felt. If it be not all that even I myself could desire, I can only say that I have done the best I could, under existing circumstances, to produce a reading book for the higher classes of our Catholic Female Schools, that may help to elevate the literary taste of our young girls, and inspire them with a love for really good reading, in prose and poetry. A New Greek Grammar.

A Grammar of the Greek Language. By Rev. D. Yenni, S.J., Professor of Greek and Latin in Spring Hill College. 1 vol. 8vo, half bound, ... $1.25

(SUBJECT TO SPECIAL TERMS.)

The object of this Grammar is to simplify and facilitate the study of Greek in the middle and higher classes of our colleges and academies. Its plan, which is substantially the same as that of the author's Latin Grammar, has been successfully tried for many years in the school-room. The leading modern treatises on Greek Grammar have been freely consulted, among others those of Buttmann, Curtius, and especially the profound and accurate work of Kühner. Their labors were submitted to a careful analysis, and everything that could prove of real use to the student, and which is practically attainable in an undergraduate course, has been selected and adapted to the simple and uniform method here pursued. The formation of the tenses, which usually proves a stumbling-block in the path of the learner, will be found treated in a simple and methodic manner, and based on a thorough study of the Greek verb. Kühner's Syntax has chiefly been followed, but the arrangement of the Concords is that of the well-known Latin Grammar of Alvarez, and will be found logical and easy in practice. The Greek Accents, the Dialects, and the Greek Prosody have been treated of in the form of appendices at the end of the Grammar. A number of appropriate Exercises, with a Vocabulary, have been added, which serve to test the accuracy of the pupil's knowledge and to facilitate his first labors.

Finally, no pains have been spared to produce a systematic, and for all practical purposes a complete exposition of the Grammar of the Language.

Correspondence invited in reference to the adoption and introduction of the Grammar in schools and academies.

Special terms for introduction will be made, and copies for examination, with a view to introducing the work, will be sent by mail, post-paid, at introductory rates.

Yenni's Latin Grammar.

A Grammar of the Latin Language. By Rev. D. Yenni, S.J., Professor of Greek and Latin in Spring Hill College. 1 vol. 8vo, half bound, ... $1.25

(SUBJECT TO SPECIAL TERMS.)

In preparing the Grammar here presented to the public, we have availed ourselves of the labor of the very first grammarians and lexicographers of Germany, England, France, and Italy, incorporating with borrowed materials such observations and arrangements as the experience of so many years has suggested. It is, therefore, not originality that is claimed for the present work, but utility. No new system has been invented; no new method introduced. The work thus compiled is intended not only for students actually going through a regular course of classical studies in schools and colleges, but for such also as may deem a private review of the Latin Grammar available. It is intended equally for both the higher and lower classes, for we do not share the opinion of those who require a Latin Primer for beginners and a quarto Grammar for adepts as a necessary condition of a successful classical education. We rather think that Grammar best calculated to ensure final success which provides equally for all, which goes with the child and the youth, from year to year, from class to class, as a dear companion and trusty guide. In this vade mecum the more talented pupil will have a treasure from which to store his mind and fit himself for a superior course, while the less talented pupil will have a Mentor to clear up his doubts, and both will be benefited gradually, naturally, as the constant perusal of the same book will, by strengthening local memory, render its use more agreeable.

Correspondence is invited from teachers and professors in reference to the adoption and introduction of "YENNI'S LATIN GRAMMAR" in schools under their charge. Special terms will be made for introduction, and copies for examination with that object in view will be forwarded by mail, post-paid, at introductory rates, upon application to the publishers.

—— The Troubles of our Catholic Forefathers, related by Themselves. From hitherto unpublished manuscripts. Edited by Rev. Father John Morris, S.J. Second Series. This volume consists of two parts, which closely bear on one another. Contents: 1. The Life of Father William Weston, S.J. Father Weston was for seventeen years in English prisons in the time of Queen Elizabeth, after two years had been spent by him in the active duties of the mission. His life may be regarded as an instalment of the history of the days of persecution, into the details of which it enters with much minuteness. 2. The Fall of Anthony Tyrrell was prepared for the press by Father Persons in the words of the narrative drawn up by Tyrrell himself. It is thus the autobiographical account of the singular life of a man who three times fell from the Church and who lived among Catholics as a spy. From it the fullest insight may be obtained into the manner in which pressure was brought to bear upon wavering Catholics by Elizabeth's ministers of state, and into the use that was made of such instruments, 1 vol. 8vo, cloth (B. & O.), ... 5 50

—— The Condition of Catholics under James I. This work consists of two parts: 1. The Life of Father John Gerard, S.J., chiefly translated from the narrative of his missionary career in England, written by him in Latin for his Superiors. 2. Father John Morris, S.J. 1 vol. 8vo, cloth (L. & Co.), ... 5 50

—— The Letter-Books of Sir Amias Poulet, Keeper of Mary, Queen of Scots. Edited by Rev. Father John Morris, S.J. Sir Amias Poulet had charge of the Queen of Scots from April, 1585, to the time of her death, February 8, 1587. His correspondence with the Lord Treasurer Burghley and Sir Francis Walsingham enters into the details of her life in captivity at Tutbury, Chartley, and Fotheringay. Many of the letters now published are entirely unknown, being printed from a recently discovered manuscript. The others have been taken from the originals at the Public Record Office and the British Museum. The letters are strung together by a running commentary, in the course of which several of Mr. Froude's statements are examined, and the question of Mary's complicity in the plot against Elizabeth's life is discussed. 1 vol. 8vo, cloth (B. & O.), ... 4 00

STANDARD WORKS

VARIOUS

Departments of Literature.

FOR SALE BY

D. & J. SADLIER & CO.,

Publishers,

31 BARCLAY STREET,

New York.

The following list of books has been issued to give our customers a selection of works in the various departments of literature.

A number of them, though written by non-Catholics, are, in a large degree, unobjectionable, being the productions of authors of established reputation, and whose general merits secure for them a standing in public and private collections.

Care has been taken in the selection of authors, and the list comprises only such works as may under certain restrictions be placed in Catholic libraries.

Unhappily, in the matter of historical works a certain anti-Catholic bias is too frequently displayed.

Yet the writings of Prescott, Irving, Macaulay, Miss Strickland and others contain so much valuable research, inaccessible to the general reader through any other channel, that they must always command attention.

It also happens in many instances that the works of certain authors cover periods of history, and travel in various parts of the globe not treated upon in detail, by Catholic writers.

For the convenience of our customers we have made this catalogue at NET WHOLESALE PRICES, from which no further reduction can be made.

When books are ordered to be forwarded by mail it will be necessary to add ten per cent. to the price, to cover the expense of postage.

Dickens, Charles, Works of.

A New Edition. Among the many editions of the works of this greatest of English novelists there has not been until now one that entirely satisfies the public demand. Without exception, they each have some strong distinctive objection: either the form and dimensions of the volumes are unhandy, or the type is small and indistinct, or the illustrations are unsatisfactory, or the binding is poor, or the prices are too high. An entirely new edition is now, however, published which, it is believed, will in every respect completely satisfy the popular demand. It is known as "Carleton's New Illustrated Edition." Complete in fifteen volumes. The size and form is most convenient for holding, the type is entirely new, and of a clear and open character that has received the approval of the reading community in other popular works. The illustrations are by George Cruikshank, H. K. Browne (Phiz), G. Cattermole, John Leech, F. Walker, Marcus Stone, Dalziel, S. L. Fildes, and others—the original artists chosen by Charles Dickens himself—and the paper, printing, and binding are of an attractive and substantial character. This beautiful new edition is complete in fifteen volumes, and is now offered at the extremely low price per set, net only, ... 15.00

English Men of Letters. Edited by John Morley. These short books are addressed to the general public, with a view both to stirring and satisfying an interest in literature and its great topics in the minds of those who have to run as they read. An immense class is growing up, and must every year increase, whose education will have made them alive to the importance of the masters of our literature, and capable of intelligent curiosity as to their performances. The series is intended to give the means of nourishing this curiosity to an extent that shall be copious enough to be profitable for knowledge and life, and yet be brief enough to serve those whose leisure is scanty.

ALVIRA, THE HEROINE OF VESUVIUS.

A

Soul-Stirring Tale of the XVIIth Century.

FOUNDED ON THE FACTS RECORDED IN THE ACTS OF CANONIZATION OF ST. FRANCIS OF JEROME.

By Rev. A. J. O'REILLY, D.D.,

Author of the "Martyrs of the Coliseum," "Victims of the Mamertine," etc.

One volume 12mo, cloth extra, gold and ink designs, . . $1 50

The incidents of this remarkable narrative are as startling as any to be met with in the most sensational of modern novels. But, instead of being forced, unnatural, and improbable, they possess the profounder interest of being facts, authenticated by more incontestable evidence than any by which the facts of ordinary history are supported.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"The late Augustin Thierry, author of one of the best works on English history, 'The Norman Conquest,' said he was first incited to study the history of the Ang'o-Normans by reading Scott's celebrated romance, 'Ivanhoe'; and doubtless many other writers who have become famous in the world of letters have drawn their inspiration from similar sources. Historical fiction, when the main facts of the story are conscientiously presented, becomes a most valuable auxiliary to more serious studies, for it serves a double purpose by conveying instruction while affording rational and healthful amusement.

"Von Bolanden's book, 'Bertha,' is of this class. It deals with an important and interesting episode in the history of Germany and of the Church—the crimes and vices of the Emperor Henry IV., and the efforts made by his Holiness the reigning Pope first to reclaim by persuasion, and afterwards to terrify by excommunication, the astute but corrupt monarch. Henry himself is well and correctly drawn, with all his good and bad qualities as described by contemporary writers; his consort, 'Bertha,' though represented by the same authorities as a most excellent woman, is more a creation of the author, intended, we presume, as a type of the perfect wife. The other characters, landgraves and knights of the feudal age, full of rough piety, and not averse to fighting 'in any good cause at all,' are natural, while the representatives of the Holy See, who are prominent among the chief actors, men feeble physically and without material strength, but of superior mentality, shine forth with all the reflected light of Rome as it shone in the ages of faith. Unlike too many of the works of European authors which come to us second hand, 'Bertha' is admirably translated. The English is pure, precise, and classic; and, were we not aware that it was written in a foreign language, we might well believe that it was originally constructed in our mother tongue, so free is it from double negatives and inverted sentences, peculiar to French and German, but altogether out of place in good English."—McGee's Weekly.

Extract from the Preface.

"In the following pages I have endeavored to give an account through extracts from his books of his present views on the chief matters of general interest on which he has written from time to time. I have sought especially to present his mind on the great religious questions which have so largely exercised the intellect of this age, and which, even in the judgment of those who are unable to accept his conclusions, he has faced, investigated, and determined for himself with an unflinching courage, and an unswerving steadfastness of purpose, almost as rare perhaps as the high mental endowments which he has brought to the task. * * * * * In compiling my volume I have primarily endeavored to consult for readers who from want of leisure, or from other reasons, are unable to procure and peruse for themselves Dr. Newman's writings at large, and who desire to possess in a compendious form a summary prepared with his approval of his ultimate judgments on the most important matters of which he has written during the last half century."

"A more timely reading-book during the approaching season of Lent, for whosoever has a sincere good-will to save his soul, we could not point out. It is the temper of the times, even in religious reading, to ask continually for something new. At the present the newest and rarest may be something old.

"Having kindly received an advanced copy, we have had to read much of it at once, and faster than we liked. We have had to read it to speak of it to others. We find it such a book as is excellently worth reading, and especially in these times. As find it such a book as is excellently worth reading, and especially in these times. As a spiritual book worth reading, it is worth reading a second, a third, ay, a fourth and fifth time—worth reading till it is fixed not only on the intellect and memory, but till it has taken hold of the will. That is the only way to read a spiritual book like this. Otherwise we but feed a barren curiosity, and are like the man the apostle ridicules as a hearer of the word of God, but not a doer—saying: 'He is like one that takes a hurried look at himself in a mirror, and passing on forgets how he looks, whether his person and dress are in proper keeping or not.'

"We recommend to others what we intend to do ourselves—to make this little volume of four hundred and sixty pages the book for our spiritual reading, and re-reading, during Lent. This treatise is not written for persons belonging to religious communities especially. Its instructions are equally applicable to seculars. It has this further charm: that while, we doubt not, it will prove far the most valuable to those who are far on in the spiritual combat, it is equally adapted even to the rest of us, who have halted so long before the lowest step, if so be that even now we have a 'good appetite'; and, in the spiritual life, a good appetite means a sincere desire to amend our lives, and to be transformed into the image of him that died for us."

Compound Syrup of Spruce Gum

TRADE

AS PREPARED BY THE

Sisters of Providence,

MONTREAL AND BURLINGTON, VT.

It is thirty years and upwards since we commenced preparing this syrup under the present name, and during this time we have given away to the poor of this city and sold many thousands of bottles. It has been only at the earnest solicitation of our friends, of all classes and denominations, that we have considered it our duty to put it up in a shape suitable to be sold on the market, by this means reaching all who may need it. The formula of the remedy is well known to the medical gentlemen of this city, and approved of by them as one of the best remedial agents known to the medical faculty for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Pains in the Chest, Disease of the Lungs, and all Pulmonary affections.

Its pleasant taste renders it peculiarly adapted for children, and if carefully administered, according to the directions, may be given to a child of a month old with perfect safety, and will afford immediate relief.

It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus, heals the irritated parts, and creates a healthy action.

One of our most eminent city physicians, Dr. E. H. Trudel, professor in the Victoria Medical College, Montreal, and head physician at the dispensaries of the Sisters of Providence, etc., etc., who has used it extensively in his practice for nearly twenty years, speaks of it as follows:

"75 DUBORD STREET, MONTREAL.

"It is now eighteen years and upwards that I have been attending physician to the Reverend Sisters of the Providence Asylum. During that period I have prescribed their 'Compound Syrup of Spruce Gum' not only to the inmates, but also to outside patients.

"The valuable properties this syrup possesses induce me to place it in the foremost rank amongst the remedies known to the therapeutist in all cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, and Consumption, affording those troubled with these complaints the most wonderful relief.

"E. H. TRUDEL, M.D."

In placing this remedy before the public, we trust you will believe we are not actuated by any sordid motive. Our object is not gain for ourselves, but that we may increase our means of doing good. We presume you are aware that our house is supported by voluntary contributions, and any increase to our means derived from our industry is devoted to alleviating the wants and the sufferings of the afflicted, the aged, the infirm, the friendless, homeless, and orphans of all classes and creeds.

We visit the sick and assist the needy to the utmost extent of our means, and we are sure that all will bear testimony of our desire to do good. To be ill or in want is sufficient to enlist our sympathy and receive our care.

Trusting to receive your hearty co-operation and support,

We have the honor to be, etc.,

The BEST and CHEAPEST EDITION

OF THE

LIFE OF BLESSED MARGARET MARY,

A Religious of the Visitation of St. Mary, embracing a History of the Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

BY REV. GEORGE TICKELL, S. J.

One Vol. 16mo. Cloth, extra..... $1.25
——————— Cloth, gilt..... 1.75

The above edition is published at nearly one-half the price of previous works on this subject that have been issued, while it is at the same time the most complete Life before the public.

"Although several lives of the singularly favored Visitandine, Blessed Margaret Mary, have been given to the world, in various countries and in various languages at different times, yet this work of Father Tickell seems pre-eminently suited to the wants of the present time, and the rapidly-growing devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. It is so simply, yet so gracefully written, so full, from beginning to end, of the loving, tender spirit which our dear Lord Jesus Christ breathed into the heart and soul of Blessed Margaret Mary, so redolent of the unction of divine grace, and, withal, so attractive in the simple beauty of the marvelous story, that it is truly a charming book to read. Nothing can be more appropriate for a premium book for Catholic schools than this new and beautiful life of the meek and humble daughter of St. Francis de Sales, who was chosen by Our Divine Lord to make His Sacred Heart known and loved by men. It is well printed and handsomely bound."—Tablet.

"The spread of devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is one of the wonders of the present age, and is the great spiritual force in opposition to the prevailing indifferentism. A biography, therefore, of the gifted and favored woman who, in a certain sense, originated it must be of surpassing interest to all devout Catholics. Father Tickell's book is admirably written, and shows in every page the handiwork of one in deepest sympathy with his subject. To the weak in faith this volume may, perhaps, be a stumbling block; but to those who have conquered love of the world, and know the beauties of spiritual life, it cannot but be a consolation and an encouragement."—San Francisco Monitor.

"According to a prefatory notice, this work is based upon 'The Memoir of her own Life, written by Blessed Margaret Mary herself at the wish of her Director, Father Rolin, S. J., and on the Life written by the Religious of Paray-le-Monial, her contemporaries.'

"The author also acknowledges his obligations to 'The Life of Blessed Margaret Mary, by Pere Daniel, S. J., and the assistance he has received from the Religious of the Visitation of the Monastery of Westbury.'

"The sources from which Father Tickell obtained the materials for his work are a guarantee of its accuracy. The details of her life, and particularly of those connected with the institution of the Devotion to the Sacred Heart, are given with great clearness and fulness. As the author justly remarks, 'Blessed Margaret Mary appears to hold the same place with regard to the Feast of the Sacred Heart which is held by Blessed Juliana in regard to the Feast of Corpus Christi. It was to Margaret Mary that the revelation was made by Our Blessed Lord enjoining the establishment of the Feast, and it is from the particulars of this revelation that we are to draw our knowledge of the design Our Lord had in view in instituting it, and of the distinctive character of the Devotion which is in a manner embodied in it.'

"This of itself is sufficient to give to the Life of Blessed Margaret Mary prominence and interest, and will doubtless cause it to be in great request among all who practice the Devotion to the Sacred Heart."—Catholic Standard.

THE ADVENTURES OF A PROTESTANT IN SEARCH OF A RELIGION.

By IOTA.

One Vol. 16mo. Cloth, beveled boards, ornamental gilt sides..... $1.50
——————— Cloth, gilt..... 2.00

"No two men seem to be led to the truth by the same road, and hence it comes to pass that every conversion is a study by itself, and a special revelation of God's dealing with souls. It is this fact which lends an interest to this history of a Protestant's adventures in search of a religion beyond that which it would possess as a mere story. It is a narrative of the trials and searchings, the lights and darknesses, of one who, led by invisible grace, gropes his way from the furthest outpost of error, as manifested by extreme Calvinism, up to the very citadel of eternal truth. It is a long and painful journey, and the writer has succeeded well in the design he had in view when he essayed to give us an account of his hero's steps through the maze. . . .

"Taking it as a whole, we have liked the work exceedingly. It is well written, and the interest of the story well kept up. It will form a valuable addition to every Catholic library, and be read with interest by both Catholics and non-Catholics. Nor should we be surprised to hear that through its perusal many another Protestant will have been helped in his search after a religion."—London Tablet.

"This, as its title imports, is a controversial tale; but it is also what its name does not import, a story of more than ordinary merit of its kind, both in beauty of sentiment and grace of composition. It has none of the childish wishy-washiness which too often characterizes doctrinal tales. The author, in a truly beautiful and instructive preface, explains the scope of the work as follows: 'We attempt in these pages to exhibit some of the workings of a mind that may be taken as the type of a large class of young thoughtful, studious men of the day, who having had instilled into their minds the divine right of private judgment, as the phrase is, have determined to shape out their own course of thought, cast off the prejudices of their education, and adopt as their motto for life, "Every man his own creed-maker."' Of course, the author is himself a convert, and therefore abundantly able to compose such a work in even a far more satisfactory manner than one to the manner born, and therefore happily ignorant of that unblissful gift, a mind working with religious fermentation.—Catholic Record.

"The book he has given us is the well-told tale of the trials, the struggles, the difficulties through which one particular mind made its way from the darkness of doubt and uncertainty in Protestant negation into the regions of eternal truth and assured trust in the full light of Catholic faith and Catholic dogma. It is told as a story, and is indeed more deeply interesting than any mere story, yet it has in it no factitious aids from fiction, no meretricious adornment of any kind."—New York Tablet.

Professor of Midwifery and of Diseases of Women and Children at the Faculty of the Victoria University, Physician of the Hôtel Dieu, Consulting Physician of the Dispensary of the Sisters of Providence.

I was recently cured in a few minutes of violent rheumatic pains, which had settled for a time in my neck and shoulders; and this was effected by one application of the "Compound Liniment," prepared by the Reverend Sisters of Providence. My recovery was immediate and well-nigh marvellous; and from that hour I have felt no rheumatic pain whatsoever. I have besides had occasion to test the wonderful power of this remedy in my own family, and in the case of some friends, when used as a cure for acute neuralgia. Gratitude has induced me to give this slight token of my fortunate experience of this precious Liniment.

"The Love of Jesus to Penitents" is the title of a little work by his Eminence Cardinal Manning, just published by the Messrs. Sadlier & Co. It may truly be called the philosophy of penance, but it is more even than that, for it penetrates to the loving and merciful Heart of the gracious God of penance, and shows how that infinite love and mercy for penitent sinners are made manifest in the confessional. It is a very small book but inconceivably great in value, and will be found most useful and beneficial to every Catholic reader—nay, even non-Catholics might read it with profit and with pleasure. It is so sweet, so consoling, so beneficent in its delineation of the compassionate Heart of Jesus in the sacrament of penance.

TRANSLATED FROM THE ITALIAN OF REV. FATHER BALLERINI, S.J.

BY J. C. CURTIN.

1 vol. 12mo, cloth extra, ... $2 00
" " " gilt, ... 2 50

In this work Father Ballerini, under the guise of fiction, narrates historical events connected with the Austro-French-Italian war of 1859. He shows the manner in which the youth of Italy were deluded into enlisting in the forces of Sardinia, or joining those of Garibaldi. The military movements and events of the war are entered into quite fully, and the characters and designs of Garibaldi, Cavour, Louis Napoleon, and other prominent personages of that time are depicted at more or less length.—Catholic Standard.

The O'Mahony,

Chief of the Comeraghs:

A TALE OF THE REBELLION OF '98.

By D. P. CONYNGHAM, LL.D.

1 vol. 12mo, cloth, ... $1 50
" " " gilt, ... 2 00

So many trashy novels, on dark subjects, make their appearance from time to time that we are apt to look upon all of them with grave suspicion.

The writer's reputation, both as a novelist and historian, induced us to give more than a passing glance to "The O'Mahony," and we must, in all justice, say that its perusal has well repaid us for the time bestowed upon it.

The scenes of "The O'Mahony" are laid, for the most part, in the counties of Cork and Tipperary, and embrace the exciting and troublous period of '98.

The plot is well laid, and the incidents are narrated with thrilling and dramatic effect.

The picture drawn of O'Mahony, as a stern, uncompromising old rebel, forcibly reminds us of some of Scott's heroes. The love scenes, though not strained nor mawkish, are full of natural feeling, while the "persecutions inflicted on the peasantry by the Yeos," headed by Earl Kingston and Flogging Fitzgerald, are depicted in a bold and masterly style. The scoundrels of the work, such as Simon Marsh and Bob Snarl, are drawn to life, and are the impersonification of all that is wicked and bad.

Perhaps one of the most elegantly drawn characters in the book is that of Father Sheehy. There we have the good priest gently but firmly standing by his flock and placing himself as a mediator—a sacrifice—between them and their persecutors

The work adds greatly to Dr. Conyngham's reputation as a writer, and entitles him to rank with such brilliant geniuses as Banim, Griffin, and Carleton.

The book is dedicated, in a neat and complimentary manner, to Postmaster James, and is brought out in the Messrs. Sadliers' best style.

In conclusion, we must state that "The O'Mahony" is a book that we can safely recommend, not only to our Irish but also to our American readers.—N. Y. Star, June 29.

By Mrs. Dorsey.

Tangled Paths.

1 vol. 12mo, cloth extra, bevelled, ... $2 00
1 vol. 8vo, cloth extra, gilt edges, ... 2 50

The readers of the Ave Maria have had many opportunities of appreciating the high qualities of Mrs. Dorsey's work, but in "Tangled Paths" the author has attained a greater degree of success than any recent Catholic novelist. She has produced a book which is Catholic throughout, and which loses on that account nothing of its charms as a novel. Like one of the delightful women in her book, Mrs. Dorsey appears to dread "religious sentimentality." The work is Catholic, robustly and frankly Catholic in every fibre, and yet there is not one page of controversy or long-drawn moralizing in it. Sybil's character gains all its loveliness from religion; the reader is made to feel this in the most unobtrusive way. Mrs. Dorsey paints, after the manner of Meissonnier, by little touches. Could anything be more artistic or expressive than the careless remark which the worldly-minded Mrs. Weston makes, on saying her first good-night to Sybil, "The alabaster Psyche would look lovely there," and Sybil's manner of acting on this hint:

"Then her first care was to look after a certain precious package that contained an alabaster statue of the Blessed Mother—the parting gift of her aunt, the mother-superioress of the convent; she quickly found it, and, laying it upon her bed, proceeded to open the straw in which it was carefully packed, unwound the thick layers of soft white wool that enwrapped it, then removed the fine linen napkin that was folded around it, and there was her treasure unharmed. She raised it up, and, as a slant ray of sunshine touched the carved faces of Mother and Child with radiance, they seemed to smile upon her; then she hastened to place it in the niche which by a loving Providence had been left vacant for her to furnish."

This episode, of which we can give only a glimpse, is very exquisitely described.

The Russian scenes, which make up the second part of the book, are graphically and strongly painted. Mrs. Dorsey brings the manners, customs, and people before us with a vividness that rivals Turguenieff or Gautier. Tatiana, the princess, and the young count make us wonder at the versatility of a writer who with the same hand could delineate Mrs. Waite, Clara, and "the boys." Mrs. Weston, with her pencilled eyebrows, her misuse of the drug chloral, her fashionable heartlessness, and her "æsthetic" Catholicity, is the typical woman of Washington society to the life. If Mrs. Dorsey were less truthful in her sketching she would have made Mrs. Weston a melodramatic "villainess" of the sensational order, but her art is too delicate for that; and, in consequence of this reticence, we have a rare sketch, which insinuates into our minds the saddest moral in the most effective way. As a novel "Tangled Paths" is admirable; as a Catholic novel it is most admirable; and if the author will compare this very satisfactory production with her earlier work, "The Student of Blenheim Forest," for instance, she can almost sing the "Nunc dimittis," for her improvement is so marked that she seems in her work to have almost reached its climax. And yet we have two faults to find with the book—a certain lack of condensation that is common in serial stories, and an immoderate use of French words, with which the printer has taken improper liberties—maître de hôtel, élan, comptesse, and entrain for instance. The hits at American "society" are sharp, and yet not unkindly; the children's ball, at which Sybil is amazed to find only "little grown-ups," Mrs. Weston's longings for a crest, and Mr. Weston's speech on the snobbishness of running after titled foreigners, are delicious touches wrought through quiet observation of Washington "peculiarities." "Tangled Paths" should not be gulped, even by the veteran story-reader, at one sitting. Let it be reserved for reading aloud during the long winter evenings, when Mrs. Dorsey's tender home pictures and teaching may be the more appreciated and the better understood.—Ave Maria.

Lectures, Sermons, Addresses, and Letters

OF

REV. DR. CAHILL,

With a Biographical Sketch Written Expressly for this Work.

THE WHOLE COMPILED AND EDITED BY

J. C. CURTIN, ESQ.

Forming the only Complete Edition of Dr. Cahill's Writings that has ever been published.

1 vol. 8vo, over 500 pages, cloth, ...	$2 50
.. Do., do., gilt, ...	3 00

The publishers have the pleasure of announcing to the American Catholic public that they have now ready a complete and carefully compiled collection of the literary works of the late Rev. Dr. Cahill, the celebrated Irish Astronomer, Orator, and Theologian, comprising his entire Public Correspondence, Sermons, and Lectures on Historical and Polemical subjects. This vast mass of contemporary history, eloquence, and learning, collected and carefully collated by the editor, J. C. Curtin, the only complete edition of the writing and discourses of the illustrious divine which has yet appeared in Europe or America, will form a large and handsome volume. A preface and an accurate and complete biographical sketch of the Reverend Doctor accompanies the work.

The subjects embraced in the work are now, as they ever must remain, of surpassing interest, and are presented in such a lucid manner and with such welded logic as to be within the comprehension of the humblest reader, and satisfying and convincing to the most superior intellect. His Letters to the British Ministers of his day caused surprise and commotion in many European courts by exposing the persistent attempts of the British Government to undermine and revolutionize all the Catholic governments of the Continent; and thereby he contributed in no small degree to change the tide of current political history. He was, as the reader will see, the first to reveal the hypocrisy of Napoleon III., while all his Politico-Historical writings prove him to have been, like his renowned countryman, Edmund Burke, singularly endowed with the gift of reading the future by the "light which the past lent him."

While especially interesting and instructive to the Irish reader, it will be none the less valuable to all those whose hearts pulsate with the electricity of genius and patriotism combined. His country, so prolific in eloquent men, has, perhaps, never given birth to a more brilliant orator than Dr. Cahill, who united the Saracenic flash of skill to the powerful argumentative style of Plunket. As this is the only complete edition of the Reverend Doctor's writings that has ever appeared, it will doubtless be gladly received and read with avidity.

CATHOLICITY

IN THE

CAROLINAS AND GEORGIA.

LEAVES OF ITS HISTORY.

By Rev. Dr. J. J. O'Connell.

1 vol. 8vo, cloth, containing over 600 pages and embellished with portraits on steel of Bishop England and the author. A copious index has been added, so that, as a work of reference, it will be found indispensable.

Bound in English cloth, ...	$2 50
" " gilt edges, ...	3 00

(Sold Only by Subscription.)

This great work, from the pen of one of the most learned of Southern priests, records in a fitting way the spread of the true faith not alone in Georgia and the Carolinas, but over the American continent. Commencing with a sketch of pre-Columbian America, he traces the first landmarks of the cross, the labors of the Jesuit, Dominican, and Franciscan missionaries, the early martyrs in the New World. The reverend author has been particularly happy in describing the Church in colonial days—the bitter opposition to the true faith. The period of the Revolution is given in a series of glowing pictures, showing that the Catholic population, in a great measure, became the bone and sinew of the army of Washington. Tracing the progress and persecution of the Church, until the formation of the new diocese of Charleston, Father O'Connell devotes a number of pages to the life and works of Bishop England, who was the tongue of the Catholic Church in the New World. Passing in review the spread of the faith in Georgia and the Carolinas, the author traces the period of the civil war, the position of Catholics in the Southern States. This splendid work records the labors of the bishops and priests whose glorious missionary work in the Southern States forms some of the brightest pages in the history of the Catholic Church in America. The question of Catholic education is most elaborately treated, the faithful work of the Christian Brothers and the Sisters of the Ursuline Order, Sisters of Mercy and Charity, being fully written. "Catholicity in the Carolinas and Georgia" contains a mass of information of the most interesting character relative to the missions in the South never before placed before the public, the reverend author being attached to the diocese of Charleston all his long and useful life. The book abounds with anecdotes of Bishop England, and gives much of the inner life of this great man.

This is a book which will be read with avidity. It is a work compiled after years of patient preparation. It gives in charming detail all that is of high interest in the Catholic history of those most remarkable portions of our country. It travels over ground that has never been hitherto explored. It furnishes an accurate chronological résumé of startling events, including the personal narrative of the actors.

It is a complete index to the early settlers, a sort of family tree, revealing the terrible struggle made by our forefathers in their sublime efforts "to keep the faith."

"Catholicity in the Carolinas and Georgia" reads like a romance. The trials and adventures of the missionary fathers, the devotion and sacrifices of the faithful, the wonderful spread of Catholicity, considering the obstacles encountered, seem as if taken from the early history of the Church.

It is written in a conversational, easy style that carries the reader from the first page to the last, uniting the vigor of a scholarly pen to the simplicity of "a twice-told tale."

The gifted author set himself a great task, but one that he has most gloriously accomplished—for "Catholicity in the Carolinas and Georgia" will always remain one of the greatest and most learned contributions to the history of the Catholic Church in the New World.

JUST PUBLISHED.

SADLIERS' EXTRAORDINARY CHEAP EDITION

OF THE

OCTAVO CATHOLIC BIBLE.

It is in the text accurate to the very highest degree, the Douay Bible, as revised by Dr. Challoner, and the Latin Vulgate being strictly followed. It is printed from new and clear type of remarkable beauty, on fine, thin, highly-calendered paper, and well and substantially bound.

No more convenient, readable Bible has ever been placed within the reach of Catholics in the United States, and with no other Bible was so much care taken and expense incurred to attain the utmost accuracy and prevent the occurrence of the gross errors and omissions which disfigure so many hastily got-up Bibles which are imposed on an unsuspecting public. This Bible is approved and commended by His Eminence John Cardinal McCloskey, Archbishop of New York. Its cheapness and its superiority over all others make it in an especial manner the Bible for the Catholic household. It is within the means of all; every one can afford it. To clergymen on the mission its accuracy and portable character, as well as the clearness and legibility of the type, make Sadliers' cheap Octavo Bible one they can use with satisfaction and heartily commend to all.

Bound in the following styles:

Cloth extra,	$2 00
Arabesque, gilt edges,	3 00
Imitation antique, gilt edges,	3 50

APPROBATION.

"I hereby approve the publication by Messrs. D. & J. SADLIER & Co. of the New Octavo Catholic Bible, unusual care having been taken to make the edition extremely accurate and faithful.

THE HOLY BIBLE.

Translated from the Latin Vulgate.

Diligently compared with the Hebrew, Greek, and other editions in divers languages. The Old Testament, first published by the English College at Douay, A.D. 1609, and the New Testament, first published by the English College at Rheims, A.D. 1582. With Notes, Critical, Historical, and Explanatory, selected from the most eminent commentators and critics, by the Rev. George Haydock.

Revised and corrected, with additions, by the Very Rev. Frederick Canon Oakeley, M.A., with the approbation of His Eminence Henry Cardinal Manning, Archbishop of Westminster.

This new edition of Haydock's Bible, recently revised by the learned and pious Canon Oakeley, will in shape, typographical excellence, fineness of paper, and artistic beauty of binding be superior to anything which has ever yet been offered to the Catholics of the United States.

It will bear the express approbation of His Eminence Cardinal McCloskey, and will be illustrated by one hundred exquisite engravings designed by Gustave Doré and others.

For the Catholic family no Bible will in any way approach this grand edition in its comprehensiveness or beauty.

It will be issued early in the spring.

The Golden Series.

SADLIERS'

ELEMENTARY GEOGRAPHY,

ILLUSTRATED BY

Numerous Maps and Engravings.

In presenting this work we respectfully solicit the attention of the public to a brief statement of its leading features. The plan adopted is the objective. First the maps are presented, then the map questions, and finally some descriptive geography and important facts. It is a First Book or elementary work, as the name imports, and, though complete in itself, is only preparatory to the study of a more comprehensive manual. It is adapted, in style and matter selected, to the capacity of young learners, for whom it is intended.

It contains TWENTY-FOUR maps including special maps of Ireland, the Dominion of Canada, the German Empire, and New York City and its vicinity, which are printed in bright and beautiful colors from original designs that have been drawn and engraved expressly for this work.

It is the first of a series of three books. The second will also be complete in itself and will contain the principal part of the science, while the third will be complete and scientific.

The maps in the second and third books will be on a uniform scale of a certain number of miles to an inch, which is the correct method. The teaching is erroneous, and false impressions are made on the young minds, when, for instance, the map of Texas is made the same size as the map of Europe, without any reference to a scale.

The work will show that the author is a practical teacher, who thoroughly understands the subject. Unusual pains have also been taken in the mechanical execution of the beautifully-colored maps and appropriate engravings.

Therefore it is confidently hoped that the high degree of excellence that has been attained will be duly appreciated by those interested in the cause of education, and lead to its extensive use.

Small quarto, strongly bound, price 50c.

This is the first book of an entirely New Series of Geographies, which will be issued under the name of the "Golden Series." The second book is now in press for immediate publication, while the third will immediately follow.

To prevent any mistakes in securing this edition when ordering, give the full title of the book, as follows: "Sadliers' Elementary Geography—Golden Series."

Correspondence invited in reference to the adoption and introduction of SADLIERS' ELEMENTARY GEOGRAPHY.

Special terms for introduction will be made, and copies for examination with a view to introducing the work will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of twenty-five cents.

MANHATTAN COLLEGE,

ON THE HUDSON,

Manhattanville, N. Y.

(The Brothers of the Christian Schools.)

THE object of this institution is to afford students the means of acquiring the highest grade of university education, by combining the advantages of the college and of the polytechnic school. The plan of studies embraces a thorough course of humanities, and both the higher mathematics and the natural sciences receive more attention than is usually bestowed on them in literary institutions.

Care is taken that every branch prescribed be thoroughly studied and that nothing be learned merely by rote. With this view the students discuss the subject-matter of each lesson in class, independently of the language of the text-book, criticise one another's performances, and give free expression to their opinions on all points open to debate. They thus accumulate ideas instead of mere words; they digest what they learn, and acquire thoughtfulness, self-reliance, and facility of expression.

A commercial department has been formed for the benefit of young men who cannot command the necessary time to pursue the whole course, either in the classic or the scientific department. To those attaining such proficiency in this course as will enable them to undergo a thorough examination, certificates of competency are given as a guarantee of their fitness to engage in mercantile pursuits.

As the college is conducted by the Christian Brothers, it is presumed that they need hardly assure the public that the uttermost attention is bestowed on the moral and religious training of all committed to their care.

Manhattan Academy, 213 West Thirty-second Street, and De la Salle Institute, 46, 48, and 50 Second Street, are both incorporated with the College, and thus form part and parcel of it. Students receiving diplomas from either of these institutions are entitled to enter the Junior Class of the College.

PROSPECTUS

OF

St. Mary's College,

MONTREAL.

This College is conducted by the Jesuit Fathers. Opened on the 20th of September, 1848, it was incorporated by an act of the Provincial Parliament in 1852.

The Course of Studies, in which Religious Instruction holds the first rank, is divided into two sections, the CLASSICAL and the COMMERCIAL.

The CLASSICAL COURSE, principally taught in French, is designed to impart a thorough knowledge of the Greek, Latin, French, and English Languages and Literature, pure and mixed Mathematics, History and Geography, Philosophy and Natural Sciences, and whatever is necessary as a preparation for a professional career.

It comprises eight Classes—Latin Elements, Syntax, Method, Versification, Belles-Lettres, Rhetoric, first and second year of Philosophy.

The COMMERCIAL COURSE, principally taught in English, embraces the English and French Languages and Literature, Mathematics, and the other branches named above; moreover, Book-keeping, and whatever else may fit a young man for commercial and industrial pursuits.

There are, moreover, Elementary and Preparatory Classes for younger students.

The system of education is paternal; the teachers endeavor to unite kindness with firmness, and make use of the means of persuasion in preference to those of severity.

To be admitted into the College applicants must present a certificate of good character.

Monthly reports of behavior, application, and progress are sent to parents or guardians.

None but relations, or those who represent them, are allowed to visit the boarders.

Half-boarders and day-scholars must not absent themselves without previous leave from the College authorities.

The collegiate year is of ten months, beginning in the first week of September and ending in the first week of July.

The College will not take charge of providing a student with clothing or other necessaries, unless a sufficient sum be deposited in the hands of the Treasurer.

No reduction in the above-mentioned terms will be granted for absence of less than one month.

Each student must constantly be provided with at least two complete suits (including cap or hat), besides overcoat and fur cap for the winter season, twelve handkerchiefs, six towels, twelve shirts, six pairs of socks, three pairs of shoes or boots.

The College authorities request parents not to allow their sons any extravagance with respect to clothing, pocket-money, etc., but rather to impress upon them the importance of economy. Likewise, they should not allow them to keep any considerable amount of money in their possession.

To avoid delay, mistake, or any other inconvenience, money, bank-drafts, or checks should always be directed to "The Treasurer of St. Mary's College, Montreal."

Mount St. Agnes' Academy,

MOUNT WASHINGTON,

Near BALTIMORE, Md.

Mount St. Agnes' Academy offers peculiar advantages to young ladies who wish to receive a solid, useful, and ornamental education. It is situated about five miles from Baltimore, on the Northern Central Railway, in one of the most healthy and picturesque sections of the country, and by its lofty grove and flower-crowned site, its extensive buildings and its handsome playgrounds, attracts the attention of every passer.

Parents and Guardians may rest satisfied that the Sisters who direct the Institution consider themselves bound to respond to the confidence placed in them by giving their pupils a Christian and virtuous education, strictly attending to their intellectual improvement, cultivating that refinement of manners which will fit them for society, and giving them that physical care which they would receive under the parental roof. It is the wish of the Sisters of Mercy, that great expense should not be a necessary attendant upon the acquisition of a thorough education; they have, therefore, placed their terms at a rate which they hope will prove an incentive to all who appreciate the advantages of an Academical Course.

St. Mary's Academic Institute,

St. Mary's of the Woods, Vigo Co., Ind.

This noble Institution was founded in 1840 by the Sisters of Providence from Ruille, in France. The little band which undertook the arduous task of opening an educational establishment in the western wilds of Indiana was composed of six Sisters, including Mother Theodore, the foundress, whose name is held in veneration by all who had the happiness of knowing her. Many and great were the difficulties to be overcome in a new and uncivilized country, in which the resources were few, the language, customs, and manners entirely strange. But the zealous laborers, aided by those who came to join in the good work, struggled on, and before the lapse of many years St. Mary's Institute attained the well-earned reputation of being a first-class Academy. The present Academic building is pronounced by all who visit it to be one of the finest in the United States. It is located four miles west of Terre Haute, near the Indianapolis and St. Louis Railroad. It is spacious, well-ventilated, convenient, and furnished with all modern improvements. It is liberally supplied with philosophical and astronomical apparatus, charts, globes, and everything conducive to the attainment of knowledge. The pupils have access to a well-filled library of choice and standard works. Every facility is afforded for attaining proficiency in music, painting in oil and water-colors, etc. Special attention is paid to forming the morals and manners of the pupils. Simplicity of dress is enforced by rule. The extensive grounds surrounding the Institute are beautifully laid out, and offer every inducement to the young ladies to engage in healthful exercises.

Parents may rest assured that pupils placed under the Sisters' care receive all the attention that kindness can suggest.

The strictest and most constant attention is paid to the moral and intellectual education of the pupils.

The Course of Studies is complete, and adapted to boys of all ages.

English, French, German, Spanish, Latin, and Greek are taught.

A thorough COMMERCIAL COURSE has been in progress for several years, and has given very remarkable results. A diploma is delivered to the graduates of this department.

Academy of Mount St. Vincent,

ON THE HUDSON, NEW YORK CITY,

UNDER CHARGE OF THE SISTERS OF CHARITY.

This Academy is delightfully situated on the Hudson, at a point which commands one of the most extensive and magnificent prospects along the range of the river from New York to Albany. It is easy of access, the Hudson River Railroad trains making twenty-three stoppings daily at the Mount St. Vincent Station, three minutes' walk from the institution.

The location is exceedingly salubrious, and every possible attention is given to the health of the pupils, who daily exercise nearly three hours in the open air, beginning with a half hour's walk in common before the morning studies, to secure the bracing effect of early exercise. The institution owns about sixty-three acres—over half of which is thrown open to the pupils for recreation grounds—in the immediate vicinity of the Academy; they are tastefully laid out, the roads macadamized, and the walks flagged.

The Musical Department has the most exact and conscientious attention, and, according to the testimony of the Academy patrons, gives unqualified satisfaction. Incentives to study are many and well chosen; the general discipline of the school is on the home principle—mutual affection and tender consideration.

No pains shall be spared to make the pupils proficient in French, and recent arrangements to facilitate its acquirement promise success.

The scholastic year is divided into two equal terms. The first commences on the first Monday in September, the second on the first Monday of February. As all the advantages to be found from a sojourn in the country are enjoyed at the Mount, it is earnestly desired that parents should be prompt in entering their daughters in September. PRIESTS

Society of Mary,

COMMONLY CALLED

MARIST FATHERS, OR MARISTS.

This Religious Order, much as it has already been blessed by God's merciful Providence, does not yet count very many years of existence; founded in the Diocese of Lyons (France) by an humble and zealous priest in the beginning of the present century, so well and so justly called the "Age of Mary," the rising Society was applauded and encouraged by Pope Pius VII. in 1821, and formally approved by Gregory XVI. in 1836. A further sanction and blessing of the Holy See was bestowed upon it in 1860. His Holiness Pius IX. finally approved its constitutions by a solemn decree in 1873, thus adding to the testimony of time and experience the blessed seal of his unerring authority.

According to their constitutions, the members of the Society of Mary unite the active with the contemplative life, and the name they bear sufficiently tells under whose patronage and in whose spirit they have resolved to devote themselves both to their own sanctification and that of their neighbor, particularly the poor and those most destitute of religious comforts.

The primary object of the Order is to promote the sanctification of its members, by securing to them the advantages of the religious life, under the special protection of Mary, who is constantly set before them as the model of the humble hidden life, whether in community or in the exercise of the works of zeal.

These works, which form the secondary object of the Institute, may be reduced to the four following heads: the Training of Youth in Colleges, that of Ecclesiastics in Seminaries, the Home and Foreign Missions, and Preaching, with the other functions of the Sacred Ministry in the places of residence.

Besides the practice of perfect religious obedience, which ought to constitute their peculiar character, the Marist Fathers profess an especial devotion to the Holy See, the greatest respect for episcopal authority, and in the discharge of the Sacred Ministry endeavor to live in perfect harmony with the secular clergy.

Their costume and regimen is that of pious, modest priests, without ostentation or luxury. There are no outward austerities prescribed by the rule, but to compensate for this a particular spirit of interior mortification and self-denial is required.

To be sent on Missions among savage nations requires, on the part of the subject, his own personal application, besides decided proofs of virtue and the other necessary qualifications. The English-speaking subjects are specially destined for the establishments in Great Britain and Ireland, America, Australia, and New Zealand.

The Order likewise admits young men as Brothers Coadjutors (3), who, after due probation, take, like the Fathers, the three perpetual vows of religion, and belong to the Institute by an equal right, though with a different object.

They are received on the same conditions, except as regards science and Holy Orders, as the candidates for the priesthood. The qualifications especially required for them are a love for labor, and the knowledge of some trade or acquirement conducive to the material interest of the community.

For further particulars, or for admission, apply to the President, Jefferson College, St. James, La.; THE REV. MARIST FATHERS, Algiers, New Orleans, or to THE REV. MARIST FATHERS, St. Michael's, Parish of St. James.

This ancient establishment, of which the Marist Fathers are now the sole proprietors, is agreeably situated at College Point, one of the most eligible and picturesque spots formed by the windings of the Mississippi, and combines, together with the best sanitary conditions, all the advantages calculated to make it pleasant and attractive. Whatever the causes may be which contribute to the salubrity of the place, it is a well-known fact that no malignant fever ever broke out among the pupils, who have always been noted for their healthy appearance.

The College building, offering an aspect both graceful and commanding, its halls and Gothic chapel, the additional advantages of an extensive playground and lands recently increased by the purchase of a shady and delightful adjoining property, mark out Jefferson College as one of the noblest institutions of the State.

The Marist Fathers, who regard education as one of their principal objects, are untiring in their efforts to instil into the hearts and minds of their pupils the most strict principles of virtue, as well as the knowledge of all the branches of a sound and practical education.

The College possesses a Library, and is empowered to grant Diplomas, confer Degrees, and bestow all literary honors. Great care is taken to promote the physical as well as the intellectual development of students. An experienced physician is in constant attendance.

INSTITUTE

OF THE

Brothers of the Sacred Heart.

CIRCULAR.

The Brothers of the Sacred Heart respectfully inform the Rev. Clergy that they have since 1871 opened a Novitiate at Indianapolis, Indiana, and solicit their kind assistance in the good work, as it is often in their power, by occasional advice, to encourage well-disposed young men who may be desirous of embracing religious life.

This Congregation was Founded in the year 1822 by the Very Rev. Father Coindre, a missionary priest of the diocese of Lyons, France. The principal house was established in Le Puy en Velay.

The Brothers Established their First House in the United States at Mobile, Alabama, in 1847, at the request of the late Rt. Rev. Bishop Portier. Since that time the steady increase of the community has necessitated the formation of a new province.

The End of the Institute is to give to its members particular means of laboring more efficaciously for their own sanctification, and of devoting themselves to the education of youth wherever they may be called or sent by obedience.

The Manner of Life in the Community is simple. The rule enjoins no exterior practice of penance, but obliges the Brothers to strive, above all things, to excel in the mortification of the passions and the guard of the senses.

The Proper Age for Admission is from sixteen to twenty-eight years.

The Necessary Qualifications are: good health and a sound constitution, good judgment, piety devoid of singularity, and aptitude for teaching, or at least ability to attend to temporal concerns.

Persons who cannot be Admitted are: those not born in lawful wedlock; those who are in debt; those who have some remarkable deformity or infirmity. Every postulant must bring a recommendation from his parish priest.

The Time of Probation is two years, to be spent as follows: one year or more in the Novitiate, and the remainder in a school of the Institute, or in some other employment.

The Novices

are permitted to pronounce their vows after this trial, provided their conduct has been satisfactory.

The Pension for Board and Tuition

during the time of probation is $200. From this a reduction may be made in the case of a young man of uncommon merit, on the written recommendation of his pastor.

A Novice is Required to be faithful to the rules and regulations of the Institute and submissive to the orders of superiors.

CORNER OF CHERRY AND ERIE STREETS,

TOLEDO, OHIO.

This institution, incorporated with the privileges of a college, is under the direction of the Ursuline Nuns.

The spiritual charge of the house is entrusted to the Chaplain of the Convent, and the greatest possible attention is given to the religious training of the pupils. This feature, combined with the thorough method of instruction and the unrivalled advantages of the musical department, renders this institution worthy, in a particular manner, of the patronage of a discriminating public.

The course of studies embraces all the branches that are necessary to the acquisition of a solid and refined education. Gold medals and diplomas are conferred on graduates. Examinations are held semi-annually; private literary and musical reunions every month; and official reports are transmitted at the end of each session to parents and guardians.

Every care is taken to promote the health of the pupils. Active exercise in the open air is enforced by rule.

The scholastic year is divided into two sessions of five months each, beginning respectively on the first Monday of September and the first Monday of February. Pupils are requested to enter at the opening of the sessions; however, they will be received any time during the year, their session dating from time of entrance. Special classes are formed for those who wish to become teachers.

It aims at a carefully-graded system of studies, beginning with the rudiments of every branch. At their entrance pupils are examined and classed according to their abilities and previous attainments; a thorough and satisfactory examination is the only passport to a higher department.

ARCADIA COLLEGE.

For over thirty years Arcadia has been a prominent educational centre. The College has had the patronage of a large extent of territory, and justly deserved it. Now the famous institution has passed into the hands of its present owners, the Ursuline Nuns, who have entirely completed and thoroughly furnished the new and immense structure which a few years since was to have been the State School of Mines The institution is delightfully situated in the beautiful valley of Arcadia, nestling amid the surrounding heights of the Ozark Mountains, and elevated above St. Louis about 700 feet, according to the United States survey. The air is pure and invigorating, the scenery is simply enchanting, while for health it cannot be excelled in the West. Arcadia is now the great summer resort of the better class of St. Louis people. These inducements, coupled with an experienced corps of Sisters, make the Arcadia College an institution peculiarly adapted to the requirements of our Catholic people.

Terms, $87 50 per session of five months, which includes washing mending, bed, bedding, tuition, and instruction in all kinds of plain and ornamental sewing. For further information apply to QUACKENBOS' COMPOSITION AND RHETORIC. The standard work on this subject, well known and largely used by Catholic schools throughout the U. S. and Canadas.

THE MODEL COPY-BOOKS, with sliding copies. New and beautiful, inculcating the true principles of teaching penmanship. Fast coming into universal use.

THE PRIMARY COPY-BOOKS, MODEL SERIES, with sliding copies. New and short series for Primary Classes.

Distinctive Features and Points of Superiority

OF THE

MODEL COPY-BOOKS.

1. The copies are upon MOVABLE SLIPS, and are so adjusted that the pupil has the one he is writing after always before his eye, instead of his own imperfect work.
2. No writing-space is taken from the page by the copy. FORTY-EIGHT LINES of writing are thus SAVED in each book of the Model Series.
3. The ANALYSIS of the letters is GREATLY SIMPLIFIED and abridged.
4. They have an IMPROVED CLASSIFICATION of letters, which are REPRESENTED in groups having common elements BY A MODEL LETTER for practice.
5. The forms of letters are taught as OBJECT-LESSONS. The willow-leaf illustration of the elementary lines is an ESPECIALLY NEW and pleasing feature.
6. Especial attention to CORRECT POSITION AND MOVEMENT is required as the basis of success. Instead of five movements, as taught in most series, to the confusion of young beginners, but one, and THE TRUE ONE ONLY, is recognized.
7. They impart a style of writing suitable for EVERY-DAY BUSINESS USES, instead of the usual cramped "school-boy" hand.
8. There are but six numbers in the Series, instead of from twelve to fifteen as in others.
9. Exercises are given for writing without ruled lines.
10. The copies are printed with GREAT DISTINCTNESS, and are divested of all superfluous ornament and confusing guide-lines.

☞ The use of the Model Copy-Books cannot fail to SECURE GREAT SUCCESS in teaching penmanship, and those who have been wedded to the old methods are respectfully invited to examine this Series, which, in all respects, may be called a "model" one.

BENZIGER BROTHERS,

NEW YORK, Cincinnati, and St. Louis,

EXCLUSIVE AGENTS FOR

The Celebrated Religious Statues

beg to call the especial attention of the Reverend Clergy, of Religious Institutions, and of all those taking interest in true Christian art and tasteful church decoration, to this feature of their business.

The truly flattering appreciation with which these statues met at the two last exhibitions in Philadelphia and in Paris, encouraged Benziger Brothers to introduce them into this country. They have already found a great many enthusiastic admirers and purchasers. All seem to agree with the Centennial jury, which recommended Messrs. FROC-ROBERT ET FILS literally "for their very tasteful selection of religious statues and altars, perfect in style and workmanship, chasteness of outline, beauty of design, and excellence in all other details of ornamentation." . . . The truly Christian and pious conception of these statues earned for the artists, not only a prize at the exhibition at Rome, but also the high distinction of an order from His Holiness the Pope.

One of the chief points of superiority of the statues of Messrs. FROC-ROBERT ET FILS consists in their coloring and richly gilt ornamentation, which are of a most exquisite and unusually finished kind, and do full honor to the French taste, the merits of which are so justly appreciated in this country.

The material used in these statues is a very solid and durable composition, called "carton-pierre," somewhat similar to that of the Munich statues, and equal to them in strength, but not so heavy. Besides this, all statues for exportation are made with especial care, and executed with such peculiar precautions as to guarantee perfect solidity.

The variety of models and different sizes is immense.

Comparison will show that these French statues are, in most cases, considerably lower in price, than those of Munich.

Special designs for altars or statues will be executed most carefully and promptly.

Photographs of any statue or altar will be sent on application.

THOMPSON'S PENMANSHIP.

Simplicity—Conciseness—Elegance. The cheapest and most beautiful system of Writing ever issued.

Thompson's Complete System of Practical Business Penmanship. A Progressive Series, in nine books.

The Author has been a teacher of penmanship for several years, and being acquainted with the many systems of writing now in use, he has had an opportunity of examining their merits as a guide to the pupil in learning the art of writing, and he has invariably observed that the principles of those systems are so complicated as to confuse the pupil, by leading him into a labyrinth of useless flourishes, unnecessary curves, and superfluous rules. To remedy this evil, so prevalent in our schools, Mr. Thompson conceived the idea of presenting a system combining elegance with simplicity, and embracing all those graceful, easy movements the formation of which nature and good taste would suggest.

Book 1 contains the elementary principles of the small letters (the looped ones excepted), and shows the proper method of combining.

Book 2 shows how the looped letters are formed.

Book 3 opens with the elements of the capitals, exhibiting at a glance, on first page, the three simple principles upon which all the capital letters of the alphabet are formed; the remainder of the book shows the capitals in the order of their parts on first page.

Book 4 gives two kinds of capitals in alphabetical order.

Book 5 has sentences, alphabetically arranged, with letters and words on the right and left hand margins.

Book 6 has complete sentences, and finer writing than any of the foregoing numbers.

Book 7 contains business forms, designed for students.

Book 8 has two short sentences on each page.

Book 9 has poetic selections, together with useful forms suitable for ladies.

The style of EIGHT and NINE is of the very finest writing, based on the angular principle, and better adapted for ladies than any books of the kind published.

Books 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6 are for boys and girls; 7 for boys; and 8 and 9 for ladies only.

Each book contains 24 pages of the best quality of finely-finished paper, with explicit printed rules for the formation of the letters. On the top margin of each copy of the first three books are complete analyses of the various forms of small and capital letters. Per dozen, ... 80 cts.

My experience of 30 years in the business (being the first manufacturer of METAL STATUES in this country) enables me to produce the very best articles at the lowest price. In fact, all my goods are strictly first-class, and I believe superior to any in the market. Very respectfully,

"ST. CLEMENT'S, ROME, Aug. 15, 1877.

"MY DEAR MR. O'SHEA: I received in due course the box containing your Geography for the Pope. On 5th June I had the honor of presenting it to His Holiness, together with your letter, which I translated into Latin.

"The Holy Father admired very much the method and style of your incomparable book, and as a pledge of his appreciation of the services you have rendered to the Catholic schools in America, he sends yourself and your family the Apostolic Benediction. Believe me, my dear sir, ever sincerely and faithfully yours,

"JOSEPH MULLOOLY, O.P."

From the Archbishop of San Francisco.

"Your Series of Geographies are all that could be desired—simple, accurate, well illustrated and mapped, and suited to the capacity of every grade of pupils.

"J. S. ALEMANY, D.D.,
"Archbishop of San Francisco."

From the Bishop of Providence.

"We thank Mr. O'Shea for a copy of his Comprehensive Geography No. 3.' The work is superior to anything of its kind yet published. Taking geography as its subject, it accompanies the names and location of places with such historical facts as indelibly fix these places in the minds of the dullest pupils. The knowledge which Mr. O'Shea has succeeded in introducing into this beautiful book—beautiful in typography, maps, and illustrations—without clogging it or losing sight of its original purpose, is varied and valuable, making it a desirable addition to any library in the world.

"✠ THOMAS F. HENDRICKEN,
"Bishop of Providence.

From the Bishop of Nashville.

"The 'Comprehensive Geography' is the most perfect and complete of the kind I have seen. The paper, the type, the illustrations, the full and accurate information, so necessary for our Catholic youth, are all excellent.

"It gives me great pleasure to recommend this most useful and progressive work.

"Most sincerely yours,
"✠ P. A. FEEHAN, Bishop of Nashville.'

From the Very Rev. Provincial of the Jesuit Fathers of the Baltimore Province.

"DEAR SIR: . . . I have found the book ('Comprehensive Geography,' No. 3) excellent in every way—thoroughly but not obtrusively Catholic, accurate and sufficiently full in statement, admirable in its combination of history with geography—and, whilst I congratulate you on the intrinsic merit and on the mechanical execution of your work, I must also express the wish that it may be duly appreciated by the Catholic schools and colleges of this country.

"I remain yours, etc.,
"JOS. P. KELLER, S.J."

"LOYOLA COLLEGE, Baltimore, Md.,
"Dec. 14, 1876.

"DEAR SIR: Your Geographies, Nos. 1 and 2, are a very good introduction to the study, and in their degree deserving of all the praise bestowed on No. 3.—Yours, etc.,

"JOS. P. KELLER, S.J."

From the Superior-General of the Jesuit Fathers of the New York and Canada Mission.

"NEW YORK, June 7, 1877.

"P. O'SHEA:

"DEAR SIR: Thanks for your neat, attractive 'Comprehensive Geography.' It answers well the want of our Catholic schools, and deserves to become popular. The short description and historical notes accompanying each clear map show, to my mind, uncommon discernment, and render the book a very instructive as well as a most interesting one.—Yours truly,

"T. CHARAUX, S.J."

From Rev. A. Kuhls.

"WYANDOTTE, KANSAS, March 9, 1877.

"MR. P. O'SHEA, New York:

"Having had, for fifteen years, charge of schools, I felt always opposed to new books on account of the great expense and unnecessary trouble. If your Governor of New York complained about the perpetual change of books, how much more poor Catholic parents, or the priest who often has to provide from his scanty means one-third of his school with books. But in regard to your 'Comprehensive Geography' I make cheerfully an exception. It is, of all the books in that line, the very best I have ever seen, and the very book that ought to be in every Catholic school; and, for the sake of our holy faith that has been trampled out of 18.000,000!!! in America, I wish and pray that your 'Comprehensive Geography' may be introduced in all the Catholic schools of America at the next term, and may our 500,000 pupils increase to a round million before long is the sincere wish of

"Yours, respectfully,

"A. KUHLS, Pastor of St. Mary's Church."

From Sister Francis de Sales Chase, Convent of the Visitation, Ottumwa, Iowa.

"P. O'SHEA, Esq.:

"DEAR SIR: Yours of the 9th duly received; also, the copies of your New Geographies. On careful examination, I find they are in every respect worthy of the commendation given by Prelates, Professors, etc. Indeed, I think it would be difficult to combine as great a variety and extent of information within as limited a space. The classification or topical system is an admirable feature of the work. The knowledge upon so wide a range of subjects is conveyed in such clear, simple, and forcible language that half the labor of learning seems to have been removed by the author. We would gladly see a copy of these Geographies in the hands of every child in the United States. We shall most willingly introduce them in our Academy and recommend them on all occasions.

"SISTER M. FRANCIS DE SALES CHASE.

"VISITATION CONVENT, OTTUMWA,

"IOWA, August 13, 1877."

From the Sisters of Charity, St. Vincent's School, Whistler, Ala.

"Your Geography is the most popular of any series, and we doubt not, as soon as its merits are a little better known, it will be introduced into every Catholic institution."

Writing & Copying Inks & Bluing,

(Established in 1838,)

Warren, Mass.

We invite the attention of the Trade to our line of Writing and Copying Inks. Our Merchant's and Banker's, as now made, we do not hesitate to say, is the best Writing and Copying Ink in market.

Our aim has been to make an Ink that would give a dark, legible copy.

Book-keepers who have used it say that it is as good as any they can find for all writing purposes.

Our School Inks are the most popular of any in market, and desirable every way. Millions of bottles sold annually. Also

Violet, Blue,

Carmine,

and Red Inks,

of the best Quality,

put up in any style or quantity wanted. It is for the interest of Wholesale Dealers and Jobbers to buy our inks, because the price, compared in quality with other inks, will, in real value, be found much lower.

Among the many Approvals and Recommendations we quote the following:

A. B. Farquher, of York, Penn., says: "I am a large consumer of ink, and have been using Arnold's, but having used your Merchant's and Banker's, I am much pleased with it."

Westfield, Mass., February 7, 1876.—This is to certify that I have used Moore's Writing and Copying Ink, and I have no hesitation in recommending it as one of the best inks I have ever used.

Principal of Davis School.
J. H. Maldeman,

Middlebro Smith,

Westfield, Feb'y 7, 1876.—I hereby concur in the above opinions.

ARTISTIC RELIGIOUS PAINTINGS

BY

The Catholic Art Society

THE CATHOLIC ART SOCIETY is an association of artists devoted to their calling, formed and presided over by a priest whose artistic ability has been kindly appreciated all over the country, for the purpose of executing and diffusing in America religious paintings of an artistic character. The Statuary offered to the Catholic Clergy in this country, for church decoration, is all that can be desired, in an artistic and religious point of view, but the same cannot be said of the paintings for the same purpose; they are anything but religious, because they are not artistic. They lack many, if not all, of the qualities demanded by Art for paintings, and more imperiously for religious paintings than for others—perspective, anatomy, naturalness of grouping, truth of coloring, unity of composition and tone, and above all, expression in keeping with the subjects they aim at representing or symbolizing. In this, our judgment, which we express plainly and fearlessly, because we know whereof we speak, we are sustained by the whole body of the Catholic Clergy, and not a few of the laity. The Catholic Art Society of America will strive to fill this want, too long and too deeply felt. It is the result of twelve years of study, toils, and struggles of the most trying nature, the recital of which will be one day a part, and perchance not an uninteresting one, of the history of the Catholic Church in America. With feeble health, lack of all earthly means, but with a will that yields to no human fear or obstacle, its founder has, humbly and slowly indeed, yet courageously and steadily, pursued his aim. To-day his work stands on a solid basis, and the Church will likely reap honor and good from it for many a year to come. The collection of models he has procured in Europe embraces a variety of the most suitable subjects for Church decoration, and to execute correct copies of these faultless models he has secured the services of men worthy of the name of artists, as their work will soon show. He would have no others.

His labors have been appreciated and encouraged beyond his expectations, both by the hierarchy and clergy of the country. The following letter from one of the warmest friends of the Catholic Art Society will explain the reason of the present location of its Studio:

CHURCH OF SS. PETER AND PAUL,
BROOKLYN, E. D., N. Y., Nov. 5, 1879.

ARTISTS OF THE CATHOLIC ART SOCIETY OF AMERICA:

GENTLEMEN: It is no small pleasure I experience in being privileged to say to you, I feel more than happy in aiding your grand undertaking of establishing a museum of models and a Studio of Catholic Art in the United States. The building, in the vicinity of the Church of SS. Peter and Paul, is at your entire disposal. There your great work, the first of the kind in this country, will have its inception; and may it go steadily on, till the great good contemplated, not without cause, by its founder be more than realized. The Church has made such progress in late years that you may fondly hope to see your efforts crowned with success. Cardinal Wiseman, very soon on his appointment to the metropolitan see of Westminster, saw the great need in England of such an establishment. He therefore made his appeal to clergy and laity for their co-operation, reminding them that, if no Protestant country ever produced a Christian artist, they should remove, as far as possible, this reproach from England, by establishing a Christian Art centre, where would be found works of the Masters; and from this would be distributed, all over the country, those gems of Catholic genius, which, being carefully selected and copied by true artists, would be the best substitute by far for original works that cannot be procured. Why should we in America neglect our duty in this regard? As long as Divine Providence has inspired a good priest, gifted with remarkable talents as an artist, to procure a collection of the choicest, most artistic models of Catholic Art, to gather around him other artists equally gifted, and to form a Society, the sole aim of which is to supply both clergy and laity of America with genuine works of religious art, it seems to be the clear duty of every Catholic in the land to wish this foundation Godspeed; to help as best he can, in what we all know must aid in elevating the standard of Christian Art in our midst, purify the taste of many, procure a greater glory to the Master above, and advance the interest of his Church in this part of the world. To me it is a source of great pride that what little I may have done is so highly prized by the good, zealous priest and artist whom I believe Almighty God has inspired to do this great work for our dear America.

REV. S. MALONE,
Pastor SS. Peter and Paul Church, Brooklyn, E. D.

The Catholic Art Society of America begs to refer to the following Pastors of New York and Brooklyn, whom it is happy to number among its friends and patrons:

We call in a special manner the attention of the Rev. Clergy to our model set of Stations of the Cross, justly called so superior, for artistic merit and expression of piety, to any other treatment of this subject that it belongs to a different order of painting altogether. No priest who chances to see it once will ever be satisfied with any other. Blymyer Mfg. Co. Bells

For Churches, Fire Alarm, School.

Our bells are cast from a composite metal—in part steel—used only by ourselves, and are entirely different from all other bells. The price is much less than that of the copper and tin bells. They are warranted for two years. They are fine toned, can be heard as far as copper and tin bells of same size, and are equally durable.

Our Bell Catalogue, with full description and prices, and 1,500 testimonials from the States, Territories, and Canada, sent free on application.

From the Pilot—Boston.

"Many of our churches are supplied with the excellent bells made by the Blymyer Manufacturing Co., of Cincinnati, Ohio. These bells are said to possess all the qualities that go to make up good bells—rich tone, durability, etc.—whilst they are low in price."

From the Monitor—San Francisco.

"We can recommend to our Churches in want of a good bell the Blymyer Manufacturing Co. Bells, made in Cincinnati, Ohio. Many of them are in use in this State and Oregon, as well as in the East, and are giving excellent satisfaction. Their low price especially commends them to our feeble Churches.

IMPROVED

REVERSIBLE-BACK

SETTEES.

Pews of any Pattern made to order.

Settees with reversible backs, enabling the occupant to face either way, are not uncommon. They are known in the lecture-room and in the Sunday-school, and more particularly in the railway car, but hitherto they have not been constructed with adjustable seats as well as backs. It is undeniable that a seat, to be comfortable, must pitch downward from the front edge. Comfort and physiological considerations alike demand this.

have this advantage; besides, the back is reversed without turning it over—it is suspended on a pivot like a pendulum, and is easily changed, at the same time giving the seat the proper pitch, and holding it securely in position. Strength and elegance have not been overlooked. These settees have been preferred in every case where a reversible seat is desirable. We are making Stationary Seats to match the Reversibles, which are unequalled for beauty and comfort.

Manufacturers (under ten patents) of the only dovetailed School Desk in the world the strongest, the most durable, the most comfortable, and in every way the BEST. Nearly three-quarters of a million of these desks are now in use.

GUARANTEED for ten years, it will last twenty-five.

Once set up it needs no repairs. It is the strongest because it is the only desk which has the iron standards dovetailed into the wood throughout the entire width of all the slats of seat and back. It is the most durable because it is the only desk which has, in addition to the dovetail, a continuous wire dowel through all the slats of seat and back. Manufacturers of the TRIUMPH STUDY Folding-Lid School Desk.

The "Triumph Study" Desk is constructed on the same mechanical principles as the "Triumph." It can be transformed in an instant from a study-desk to a writing-desk, and then to a perfect settee.

This is the only desk ever invented combining a Noiseless Folding-Lid, which disturbs no other scholar; a Folding-Seat, which will remain noiseless; a Closed and Locking Book-Box, a Book-Rest, which presents the book to the eye in a direct line of vision, and a Foot-Rest, which stops the scraping of feet on the floor, and gives rest and comfort.

REV. AND DEAR SIR :

I present to your notice the above illustrations and descriptions of the Confessional Register, an instrument designed especially for the use of Catholic clergymen. It enables the priest to keep account of his penitents at confession without distraction. Its simplicity and utility have already earned for it testimonials of the highest character. Although but a few months since its introduction among the Rev. Clergy, its popularity is established beyond doubt. The above cut represents the Register, full size, in either solid Silver or Nickel-plated cases. It is an exact imitation of an open-face Geneva watch, and has a recording capacity of twelve hundred. The two hands, which revolve around concentric circles, can be reset from any position on the Dial with a common watch-key. Priests on the mission and others who are now using this Register heartily recommend it to their brethren. I have in my possession a large number of testimonials from prominent Fathers in praise of the invention, but prefer to have the machine speak for itself, and will send it on approval to any of the Rev. Clergy who may desire to test its usefulness, and afterwards it can be returned by mail or the price remitted.

DIRECTIONS FOR USING THE REGISTER.

Place the Key upon the square at the back of the Register, and turn either way until both hands are upright, AS IN THE CUT. Now turn down the ring and press in the Stem as far as it will go. Observe the long hand moves one dot for each pressure. If you do this one hundred times you will find the long hand at the starting-point, and the hundreds hand at 1 on the hundred circle. Now each additional pressure will add one to the hundred, and for every revolution of the long hand, or one hundred pressures, the shoot or hundreds hand moves one-twelfth part of the inside or hundreds circle.

PRICES:

$10 00 in Silver Engine-turned or Plain Polished Case.
$8 00 in Nickel-plated Cases, plain, same as above.
$6 00 " " " " without ball and ring on Stem.

Special Engraving and Names Extra.

Examine the New Form of Policy issued by The United States Life Insurance Co., a copy of which will be found on the opposite page.

NOTE THE LIBERALITY OF ITS TERMS.

After the premiums for three or more years have been paid, upon receiving the required notice from the assured, the Company will continue the Policy in force without further payments, for its FULL FACE, for such a period as the ENTIRE RESERVE will carry it.

Should the death of the insured take place during the continued term of insurance as provided for above, the full face of the Policy will be paid—no deduction being made for forborne or unpaid premiums, excepting in the event of the death occurring within three years after the original default.

The new form of ENDOWMENT Policy provides: That if the ENTIRE RESERVE is a greater sum than the single Premium required to carry the full amount of insurance to the end of the Endowment Term, the EXCESS shall be used as a single premium to purchase a pure endowment payable at the end of the term, thus guaranteeing to the policyholder in every event the full value of his RESERVE.

CYRUS PECK, Secretary. GEO. T. HOPE, President.

Why Property Insured in the Continental Insurance Company is Safely Insured.

Because it has large Assets, including a cash capital of $1,000,000, and a net surplus as large.

Because it conducts its business in accordance with the restrictions of the

NEW YORK SAFETY FUND LAW.

This law restricts the dividends of the Company to seven per cent. per annum on its capital and surplus funds, a limited dividend, which requires a smaller sum than its income from investments, and compels the Company to accumulate all of the profits of the business and the remainder of its income from investments for the security of those insured. It compels the Company, instead of dividing to the stockholders all of the profits, to deposit one-half of them with the New York Insurance Department, to protect policy-holders whose property is not destroyed in the next great fire, and to add the other half of such profits to its capital and surplus held to pay the losses in such fire.

Because if New York or any other large city should burn, as did Chicago and Boston, you would not be left without insurance, as were thousands who held policies in the one hundred companies which failed by those fires The Continental policy would be good for the full time for which it was written, notwithstanding such great fire.

Because by compliance with the Safety Fund Law the Continental, instead of dividing greater sums among its stockholders (as it might have done but for this law), has, in less than five years, added nearly one million of dollars to its net surplus, thus better securing its policy-holders.

Companies fail from paying excessive dividends to stockholders as well as by large fires. Although the policy of a Safety Fund Company is worth more than that of a company not complying with this law, the Continental does not charge any more for its policies than other good companies ought to charge.

Sisters of Charity's Sure Remedy.

Patented at Washington and Ottawa in 1871.

Having secured the right to manufacture and sell the "Cyano Pancreatine" throughout the United States and Canada, the Sisters invite the attention of the public to this superior remedy, compounded by themselves, for the relief of the large number who suffer so violently from Dyspepsia, etc.

The following certificate is from Dr. Beaubien, of Montreal, which is subscribed to by many other eminent physicians, all professors in the Victoria Medical College and Bishop's Medical College, of Montreal:

"This Medicament, compounded by the Sisters 'Pharmaciennes' of the General Hospital (Gray Nunnery), contains no ingredients which can in any way harm the system.

"As a compound it is entitled to rank amongst the most beneficial of all special remedies, principally in the following cases: 1st. DYSPEPSIA, or derangement of the digestive faculties, where it produces astonishing effects throughout all stages of the disease, provided there be no organic hurt, in which case the Medicament can only impart a temporary relief. Its curative properties, having been already tested in a great number of the above-mentioned cases, leave not the slightest doubt of its efficacy. 2d. IN BRONCHITIS, or PULMONARY CATARRH, it acts as a calming remedy, facilitates expectoration, relieves the cough, and brings the malady to a prompt solution. 3d. IN COLDS, tending to Consumption, it causes a visible change for the better, renders expectoration easy, and strengthens the stomach, enabling the patient to use Cod Liver Oil, thus tending not only to alleviate suffering but also to prolong life."

Notice.

This composition does not interfere with any other remedy or prescription given by physicians.

In compliance with the request of their friends, the Sisters have established a Laboratory in Massachusetts, enabling them to fill all orders more promptly.

WILLIAM JOHNSON'S PATENT IMPROVED

BORAX SOAPS,

Manufactured by Thos. Gill, Proprietor, at the

BORAX SOAP WORKS, 55 ATLANTIC AVENUE, BROOKLYN,

Registered U. S. Patent Office,

WASHINGTON, D. C., 1877.

Which is the only Soap Factory on this Continent that never had or used a pound of grease, potash, lime, clay, flint, silicate, or any adulteration, within its walls, nor never shall.

It is guaranteed the best, purest, cleanest, most effective, harmless, and economical on the market, or money refunded.

I manufacture only Soaps of tested purity, of the following kinds, from pure Tallow and Borax :

Since their first introduction, nearly six years ago, these Soaps have been acknowledged to be the Best and Purest in the market, and Borax has now become a household word. An eminent lady lately said that she considers Borax for the body as next to religion for the soul.

JOHNSON'S BORAX LAUNDRY SOAP for Family use will save five times its cost on the wear and tear of clothes, and gives them a whiteness and sweetness no Potash Soaps can do.

JOHNSON S BORAX WHITE MACHINE SOAP is now used by nearly all the first-class Hotels, Public and R. C. Institutions, and Manufacturers in the country, giving such satisfaction as they never got from any other.

JOHNSON'S BORAX TOILET SOAP for the Bath has no equal.

JOHNSON S BORAX AND OATMEAL TOILET SOAP for Softening and giving Bloom to the Skin. For Ladies, Children, or Infants. It is pronounced by the Medical Faculty as the Best and Purest that has ever come to their notice. No Nursery should be without it.

JOHNSON'S BORAX, IODINE, AND BRAN SOAP for the Cure of Corns, Bunions, and Tender Feet. It acts like magic.

JOHNSON'S BORAX AND WALNUT-OIL SHAVING SOAP. Any gentleman who wants to enjoy a luxury in Shaving and keeping his skin soft should try it.

The object of this notice is to guard the public against imposition, as most soap-makers of the present day are adulterating their Soaps with Powdered Flint, Clay, Silicate etc., which is terribly destructive to the Fabrics, each trying who can make the cheapest what they call Soap, while others, without brains or character, are trying to palm off an imitation of the Patent Improved Borax Soaps. Forgers never counterfeit on a broken bank, against which an intelligent public will easily discriminate.

In order to protect the public against spurious imitations, each cake and bar bears the Patentee's name and the above Trade-Mark.

These soaps are used by nearly all the Sisters in the different Academies, who speak in the highest terms of its merits and economy: at the Academy of Mount St. Vincent, Catholic Protectory, Industrial School of the Holy Cross, R. C. Foundling and Orphan Asylums, Manhattan College, and the other institutions in the city and States.

Address THOS. GILL, Office 14 Park Place, NEW YORK.

We have used this Soap, and are happy to say it gives the best satisfaction of any we ever had in our families.—D. & J. SADLIER & CO.
